New Fulton Salary Act Held Unconstitutional By the Supreme Court

Unanimous Decision Reverses the Ruling by Judge Pendleton, of Superior Court, and Will Result in Return to the Old Fee System.

LAW WAS CONTESTED BY THREE OFFICIALS AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Board of County Commissioners Will Hold a Meeting This Morning to Consider the Ruling of the Supreme Court and to Decide on Action.

The law requiring the county officials of Fulton county to be paid salaries instead of fees was held to be unconstitutional by the supreme court of the state in a unanimous decision handed down yesterday afternoon.

The case came before the supreme court on an appeal made by certain Fulton county officials, wherein a writ of mandamus required them to make reports in regard to salaries so that they could be paid with salaries instead of with fees.

The Fulton county officials who made the appeal were the tax collector, A. P. Stewart; the ordinary, John R. Wilkinson, and the tax receiver, T. M. Armistead.

The Law As to Salaries.

In the legislative acts of 1911, page 186, it was decreed that certain county officers, naming Fulton county among others, should be paid salaries instead of fees. The commissioners of roads and revenues of Fulton county instituted proceedings against the county officers named to mandamus them to compel them to file statements of the number of their employees with the amount of their salaries to be expended. The tax collector, the tax receiver, and the ordinary refused to make the returns, and Judge John R. Pendleton held that they should do so. The county officers named refused to make the reports on the ground that the law placing them on salaries was unconstitutional. The case was appealed to the supreme court, with the result as above stated, and the decision of the lower court was reversed.

The decision of the supreme court will mean that the Fulton county officials cannot be placed on salaries, but must be paid in fees.

Decision of Much Importance.

The decision of the supreme court is of considerable importance to the public generally, because in many instances the cost of procedure were mitigated by the county officials. Under a salary system the county officials would have been powerless to remit the costs that followed to delinquent taxpayers.

As some of the county officials did not contest the law and have endeavored to operate under a salary system, the decision of the supreme court will have the effect of invoking what these officials have done and will cause them to go back and regulate their business under a fee and not under a salary system.

In this decision the supreme court says:

What Supreme Court Says.

"The act of August 22, 1911 (Acts 1911, p. 186) touching the salaries of certain county officers, while employing certain general terms, is so hedged about with provisions, restrictions and limitations that it is in reality a special act; and being in regard to a subject for which provision had previously been made by an existing general law, it is invalid. The act being unconstitutional, it was error to grant a mandamus to compel certain officers of Fulton county to file reports with the county commissioners, as therein provided."

Remarks of the Court.

In delivering the decision Judge Atkinson says:

"It is declared in article 1, section 4, paragraph 1 of the constitution (civil code, section 6391) that 'laws of a general nature shall have uniform operation throughout the state, and no special law shall be enacted in any case for which provision has been made by an existing general law.' A general law may be repealed or modified by another general law, but it cannot be repealed or modified by a special or local law.

"If the act under consideration is a general law, it is valid as against the contention that it violates the section of the constitution above quoted. If it is a special or local law dealing with a subject as for which provision has already been made by an existing general law, then it is in conflict with that section and invalid. The question, therefore, is whether the act under consideration is a general or a special law. Has it uniform operation throughout the state? It does not purport to apply to all counties in the

TWO KILLED TWO INJURED ON SEABOARD

Flagman J. T. Allen Was Crushed to Death at Rice's Station and Engineer R. B. Brooks, of Freight Engine, So Badly Scalded That He Died Before Reaching Atlanta Wednesday Night.

TRAMP PROVES A HERO; SCALDED WHILE TRYING TO HELP THE ENGINEER

Passenger Train Has Narrow Escape, Being Waved Down by Farmer Just Before Reaching Scene of Wreck. Passengers Make Up Handsome Purse For Man Who Had Prevented Another Wreck.

"I'm nothing but a hobo, fellows; get this poor devil out here and let me be," were the words that greeted rescuers who raced to the scene of a wreck on the Seaboard last night at Rice's Station, in which Flagman J. T. Allen was crushed to death and Engineer R. B. Brooks was scalded so that he died before reaching Atlanta.

The rescuers were the crew and passengers of the night train from Birmingham, which was flagged before reaching the wreck by a farmer living nearby.

The man who declared that he was a tramp gave his name as R. G. Burns, and his residence as nowhere. He was scalded on the arms and hands and was painfully injured. He had been first to reach the wreck which occurred in a deep cut as the engine and tender raced to the relief of a freight at Powder Springs, where an engine had given out.

Cause of Wreck Unexplained.

The cause of the wreck is still unexplained and will probably never be known, as both the white men who were on it are dead and the negro fire-

ANTI-JAP MEASURE WILL BECOME LAW, SAYS GOV. JOHNSON

California Executive Finally Refuses to Veto Alien Bill as Requested by President Wilson.

NO TREATIES VIOLATED, ASSERTS THE GOVERNOR

Johnson Says Calirornia Is Only Following Action of Other States and Even of the United States.

Sacramento, Cal., May 14.—Expressing his determination to sign the alien land bill recently passed by the legislature, Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, today telegraphed to Secretary of State Bryan a long explanation of the action taken by the legislature. The message was in answer to the request telegraphed to the governor by Secretary Bryan at the direction of President Wilson that the bill be vetoed.

Governor Johnson's Message.

The governor's message follows:

"Hon. William J. Bryan, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: Your very courteous telegram relating to the alien land bill reached me late Sunday night. I take it from our conversations and your request made to me to withhold executive action until opportunity was accorded for the presentations from the federal government, that your message embodies that it was your wish and the wish of the president to say to us before final action.

"In this response it is my design most respectfully to present the situation from our standpoint and the views that actuated our legislature in passing the bill and that impel me to sanction it.

"For many years a very grave problem, little understood in the east, has confronted California; a problem the seriousness by which has been recognized by statesmen in our nation and has been viewed with apprehension by the people of this state. When the present constitution of California was adopted, more than thirty years ago, it contained the following declaration:

"'The presence of foreigners ineligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the well-being of the state and the legislature shall discourage their immigration by all means within its power.'

Problem Is Acute.

"Of late years our problem from another angle has become acute, and the agitation has been continuous in the last decade in reference to our agricultural lands, until finally affirmative action in an attempted solution became imperative. This attempted solution is found in the action of our legislature in the passage of alien land bill. In the phraseology of this bill, in those whom it affects, in its scope and in its purpose, we believe we are within the limits and our moral rights and that we are doing only what is imperatively demanded

VICTIM OF MURDER PREPARED TO DIE, BELIEVES DORSEY

Identification Slip Carried by Mary Phagan in Her Pocketbook Causes Theory That the Victim Had Been Threatened With Violence.

Either threatened with death or warned by some dread premonition of an untimely end, Mary Phagan is believed by Solicitor Dorsey to have prepared for her tragic fate by writing the identification slip discovered hidden in a compartment of the metal pocketbook which she carried daily.

The slip was given the solicitor Wednesday morning by a reporter for The Constitution. The reporter also made an authorized statement of the source from which it was obtained. It was given him by J. W. Coleman, stepfather of the girl victim.

The slip was written six days before the murder. Her parents have never known her to have possessed such an article. Its presence in her pocketbook is said by them to be as mysterious as her death. Mr. Dorsey values it highly.

Bases New Theory On the Slip.

On it he already has based a plausible theory. Members of his staff have been assigned to investigation of the motive which impelled the slain girl to strive so thoroughly, as she endeavored in the mysterious slip, to establish her identification in case of emergency.

Her parents are puzzled, too. They cannot account for the strange script, and are assisting the solicitor in ferreting it out. But little was thought of it until an examination by Mr. Dorsey Wednesday morning. As he scanned the typical handwriting of the girl of tragedy, he suddenly exclaimed:

"Looks as though she expected accident of some kind. By George! she must have. This slip was written only

SOUTH NOW SHOWING NATION HOW LOVE OF BROTHERS CAN HEAL THE BREACHES OF TIME

By DR. THORNWELL JACOBS.

(Dr. Thornwell Jacobs is editor of the Westminster Magazine, the organ of southern Presbyterianism, and secretary of the board of trustees of Oglethorpe university. He can accurately be called the father of the movement that gives Atlanta the historic importance of furnishing a common meeting ground for four great Presbyterian assemblies. The idea was first advanced editorially in the Westminster Magazine, and his effective reiteration of it caused it quickly to become nation-wide in popularity. He is one of the dominant influences in the church today. He gives below the keynote of this remarkable gathering.)

A momentous thing is happening in Atlanta. An immense denomination of Christians is entering a new era. For the first time in history the highest and largest courts of the four great bodies constituting the Presbyterian church of the nation are to meet in the same city at the same time. To any one at all acquainted with church history this is tremendously significant.

The plainest thing it means is the least apparent. It lies in the fact that millions of American citizens will for the next ten days be asking: "What are the differences between these Presbyterians?" The great Pan-Presbyterian Pentecost is answering that question. The world is asking, "Why are ye four?" The assembly answers, "We are one!" And because this is the only answer it could possibly make it could not possibly have made it before. That is truly a long quarrel that lasts more than a half century. Many yesterdays have passed since the Brothers' war. It is characteristic of yesterdays that they have passed.

South Is Leading the Nation.

The assembling of assemblies means another big thing. It is a significant fact that the south is leading the nation in the spirit of fraternity. Who would ever have thought that when the Presbyterians of America should for the first time in all history meet together it would be in Atlanta, a city that half a century ago was grim with the gray ashes of fratricidal strife? Who would ever have dreamed that Dixie Presbyterians would invite New England to enjoy her hospitality first? There you touch deeply. A generation has passed since the "Northern" Presbyterian church has been entertained in homes. A generation has come that asks for them in their homes. In the north they sit in hotels. In the south they sit by firesides, or shall I say on verandas? That is one of the reasons why this assembly when it received the Atlanta invitation last year, and accepted it unanimously, broke into singing, "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!" It was a brother's way of saying "On to Atlanta."

It is not a little thing to say that this assembling of assemblies yokes the name of Atlanta to the biggest event of Presbyterian history in America, but it is finer to add that not one human being on the continent was found to oppose the plan. Could anything be more significant than that? Beginning with Atlanta, and on through the presbytery, on through the southern assembly, the northern, the U. P. and the A. R. P. assemblies, not one single voice against it. It looked as if everybody wanted it. Therefore it is inevitable that differences shall grow smaller and similarities greater by this coming together of those who already like one another quite well. They tell me it is rather hard to point out differences between yourself and any person whose soft white arms are around your neck. Atlanta was always a swift maiden.

Discussing Common Problems.

Take this last fact: The individual assemblies will meet separately to transact their separate businesses in their separate churches, but each evening, at the Auditorium, they will meet together to confer on their common problems. Is it not significant that the great things, the great causes, the great movements, the great calls, the great hopes, will be discussed at the Auditorium? The higher one gets the nearer the mountains creep together.

That is the biggest thing that is going to happen this next ten days in Atlanta.

Not organic, but cardiacal union. Not "We once were" nor "We will be," but "We now are one."

And it may as well be added that right here and now is being developed a lovestorm that sooner or later will inevitably sweep away all barriers between the American Presbyterian bodies. It may take a decade; it may take a generation. But some things are going to happen. That is one of them. Any father can tell you that when children lose one another they have a way of getting together. Then, why should not the Common Father know it?

COL. BOONE HAS PLACE FOR MRS. LONGSTREET

Clarksburg, W. Va., May 14.—Colonel Albert E. Boone, of this city, today confirmed a story to the effect that he had offered Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the famous Confederate general, a position in his office at a salary of $2,400 a year. Mrs. Longstreet recently failed of appointment as postmaster at Gainesville, Ga. Colonel Boone served with the union army. Mrs. Longstreet's acceptance has not yet been received, but Colonel Boone expects it before the end of the week.

Wearing Uniform of Diaz J. Wylie Smith Returns: Will Not Discuss Charge

J. Wylie Smith, president of the Commercial Loan and Discount company, who left Atlanta two years ago, following certains transactions which resulted in the filing of forgery charges against him, and who has since been in Mexico fighting with the Diaz army, was brought back to Atlanta last night from El Paso, Texas, by T. M. Hamilton, who, after months of correspondence, had prevailed upon him that it would be best to come back and face the charges.

He arrived on the Atlanta and West Point train from New Orleans at 11:46. City Detectives Sturdivant and Davis met him at the station, and quietly took him to the Tower in a cab, where he will be held for trial.

Smith was worn literally to a shadow. His face was creased with the lines that starvation alone can bring; his walk was that of an invalid. Clad in the khaki uniform of the Mexican rurale, his thinness was accentuated, and he seemed to weigh scarcely more than 100 pounds.

Still Pitifully Weak.

He was carried across the line from Juarez to El Paso in a carriage last Monday so weak that he could not stand. A few days of nursing and a regular diet have given him a new lease on life almost, but he is still pitifully weak.

He would make no statement last night.

"Don't bother me. Can't you see that I'm not well?" was all that he would reply to questions in regard to his action both before and after leaving Atlanta.

When newspaper photographers ran after him, trying to take a "flash," he tried to keep behind Mr. Hamilton. When finally he was photographed in the office of the Tower, he became angry, and asked if he could not be allowed peace from newspaper men. He seemed to forget this, though, as the smoke of the flash powder drifted into his nostrils.

"I've smelt that smoke before," he said, a new luster creeping into his deep set eyes.

In just what capacity he was connected with the Diaz administration he would not say.

"I am not an emissary of the Mexican government," he said. "Nor am I even connected with it any more. I have nothing to say."

Fought for Maderoists.

That he was fighting against the Maderoists, however, is certain. Only a few months ago he wrote to a friend here that "if the Diaz faction got in power he would want to get an option on the Candler building."

During the insurrection he was injured, and was unable to get proper attention. Believing that he was going to die, he finally allowed himself to be persuaded by his old friend, Mr. Hamilton, to come back, and last Thursday, the latter left Atlanta, clothed with the proper authority to bring him back.

Smith was never arrested. Several times before he had been taken in charge by Pinkertons in Juarez, but all efforts at extradition failed and he was turned loose on each occasion. This time, he simply crossed the bridge that thousand other visitors reached Atlanta yesterday, coming from all parts of the world to see what Southern Presbyterianism that takes place in this city. By today it is estimated there will be from 4,000 to 5,000 visitors here to attend the three separate assemblies during the day and to combine their presence and enthusiasm for an immense gathering tonight at the Auditorium-Armory—the first time in the history of the world that four great Presbyterian organizations, representing nine-tenths of the Presbyterians of North America, have met in one great body.

In special trains from New York, Chicago and St. Louis and by every train that entered Atlanta during the day the Presbyterians poured into the city. Scotchmen from Edinburgh, Englishmen from London, missionaries from China, India, Porto Rico and the rest of the world were all in the throngs of people who reached the city and were assigned to their respective quarters in the homes of Atlanta citizens, if they were commissioners, or in the capacious hotels of Atlanta if they just came as visitors.

Depots Thronged by Visitors.

At each of the railway stations registration headquarters had been established. Upon the arrival of each train men wearing yellow badges with the printed words, "Welcome committee," lined the delegates up in front of the registration bureau. To facilitate matters two booths at each station were used, one for those whose names began with any letter from A to M and the other from N to Z. In this manner the hundreds of people were handled with system and order.

Two special trains arrived during the day at the Terminal station, one from Philadelphia at 1 p. m., bearing nearly 600 people, and the other from New York later in the afternoon, also bringing about 500 people.

Many expressions of satisfaction were heard about the treatment and accommodation received in the Atlanta hotels. Th, headquarters of the assemblies committee, on the fifth floor of the Empire building, was alive with people all da, long. Everybody was in a happy frame of mind and the people of Atlanta co-operated by directing the visitors on their way through the city or in rendering them other little courtesies. One of the few mishaps of the day was the losing of a suitcase by Rev. W. E. Voss, of El Reno, Okla.

Scattered Over the City.

Immediately after arrival hundreds of the visitors made their way at once to the various churches in the center of the city, where the pre-assembly conferences were in progress, with earnest and spirited discussion on missions, evangelism, education and other problems of the church today.

Not only by the Presbyterians, but hundreds of Atlanta people were opened by the Methodists, Baptists, Episcopalians and people of all shades of belief—uniting, with the far-famed "Atlanta Spirit," in entertaining the 1,500 commissioners who were sent to the assemblies by the presbyteries of every section of the country.

The chamber of commerce rooms overflowed. the Y. M. C. A. was the mecca for hundreds, while other Atlanta institutions helped entertain the visitors during the day.

Reception at Agnes Scott.

The first really big event on the social program, however, is to be the general reception which will be tendered to the commissioners and their wives next Saturday afternoon at Agnes Scott college, the Presbyterian institution located at Decatur, 6 miles out of Atlanta. In special cars the delegates will journey to Decatur Saturday afternoon to be the guests of the Atlanta Presbyterians on this occasion.

During their ten days' stay in Atlanta a number of other interesting events are planned, among them the brotherhood conference and supper next Tuesday evening at the Kimball house. Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, representing The Westminster Magazine, will tender a luncheon to the visiting press representatives Friday at the Capital City club.

The feature of the entire conclave of the Presbyterian hosts, however, will be the great auditorium gatherings, which will take place every evening at 8 o'clock for the next ten days.

Auditorium to Be Packed.

Indications are that when the first of these joint gatherings takes place Thursday night the great auditorium-Armory will be packed to its very doors and galleries. With nearly 9,000 out-of-town people here for the assemblies and fully that many Atlantans anxious to be present on this historic-making occasion, the Auditorium, which holds 6,000 or 8,000 people, will probably see one of the greatest crowds of its varied career.

Moderators of each of the four Presbyterian bodies—the Northern, the Southern, the United Presbyterian and the Associate Reformed—will make short addresses of greeting and J. K. Orr will extend the welcome in behalf of Atlanta.

The main address of the evening will then be made by Mr. James MacDonald, of Toronto, Canada, on the subject, "The Church's Responsibility for International Peace." Mr. MacDonald, who is managing editor of The Toronto Globe, is one of the biggest men in the Presbyterian church and is recognized as one of the most gifted orators of the nation.

"Fellowship" will be the general theme of this first gathering at the Auditorium. On Friday night the subject will be "Evangelism" and on Saturday night, "Christian Social Service." Sunday will be one of the most unique days in the history of Atlanta, for the Presbyterians will practically every pulpit in Atlanta, while a number of big rallies will be held in the downtown churches.

COMFORT TYING DEVICE EFFECTS GREAT SAVING

Judge Newt Morris Says Government Will Adopt the Georgia Man's Invention.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington May 14.—(Special.)—Announcing that they stood ready to guarantee the government a saving of $100,000 a year in the cost of twine used by the postoffice department, Judge Newt Morris, following an interview today with the first assistant postmaster general, predicted that the tying device of David Comfort, of Tifton, would be adopted by the department this fall.

After a trial at the Philadelphia postoffice this device received a hearty indorsement from R. L. Ashurst, the postmaster. It was praised as affecting a saving in time labor, and as being much more sanitary than the present method.

The government now spends nearly $300,000 a year on twine. The Comfort device is pledged to save one-third of this alone.

Rural Route Out of Douglas.

Representative Walker got the postoffice department today to order the establishment of a rural route out of Douglas. Coffee county, effective August 1. And to rescind its order discontinuing the postoffice at Mershon, June 1, and has received assurances that the offices at Massee, which was ordered discontinued May 1, will be re-opened.

Bills by Senator Smith.

Senator Hoke Smith today introduced two bills in the senate, providing for the payment of $1,000 to the Peavine academy, in Walker county, Georgia, and $500 to the Peavine church, to reimburse them for property destroyed at the hands of the union troops during the civil war.

Sam D. Jones Very Ill.

Sam D. Jones, president of the Atlanta Stove works, is seriously ill at Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, where he recently underwent an operation. Mr. Jones went over to the hospital to be treated for a stomach disorder and the physicians operated on him for an intestinal malady. Dr. Campbell, of Atlanta, who is Mr. Jones' physician, said the condition of the patient was not entirely satisfactory, but he was improving. Senator Hoke Smith went over to Baltimore yesterday to see Mr. Jones, and says the latter is recovering very slowly.

Report on Turpentine Industry.

A report on the turpentine and rosin industry of south Georgia and Florida was sasked for today by Senator Fletcher, of Florida. He offered a bill appropriating $10,000 to enable the census bureau to gather statistics.

Cordele Light Franchise.

Cordele, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Cordele city council last night a resolution was adopted granting the Citizens' Electric Light and Power company a twenty-year franchise. In granting the franchise the council entered into an agreement to contract fith the company to furnish street lighting for ten years.

Flight Not Attempted.

Key West, May 14—Unfavorable weather conditions today prevented the proposed attempt of Augustine Parla to fly in a hydro-aeroplane from Key West to Havana. The Cuban aviator has been here for several days making preparations for the flight which probably will be tried as soon as weather conditions permit.

For Minimum Wage Scale.

Denver, Colo., May 14.—Governor Ammons today signed a bill providing a commission of three to fix minimum wages for women and minors. Upon the appeal of women or children workers in any industry or in any community, the commission is required to give hearings and fix a minimum wage.

PASTOR CALLED BY TABERNACLE

Big Baptist Church Asks Rev. Lincoln McConnell, Well-Known Evangelist, to Take Charge of Work.

Rev. Lincoln McConnell, Tennessean by birth and noted as an evangelist and lecturer, will be the next pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle church, provided he accepts the invitation which the members of the congregation unanimously voted to extend him at a meeting last night.

At the same meeting the members raised the remainder of the $12,000 necessary to secure the donation of $3,000 from Andrew Carnegie, and to finish payment on the magnificent new organ installed in the church auditorium.

That Mr. McConnell will accept the call to the Atlanta church is the belief of the members. A. C. Boatman, chairman of the committee appointed to extend a formal invitation to him, stated Wednesday night that as far as possible he and the other members of the committee had endeavored to determine the pastor's position. He said that while they had never gained a definite statement from him as to his action, provided he should get the call, that they believed that Mr. McConnell would accept and come to Atlanta.

McConnell Well Known Here.

Mr. McConnell is well known here, where he has many friends. He was here in 1907 and 1908 as the first pastor of the Wesley Memorial church, and since then he has lectured and preached here on numerous occasions, and the Tabernacle members feel that he will prove one of the strongest men that they could secure.

His connection has been with the Baptist denomination since 1909, when with his entire family, he joined the First Baptist church at Kansas City.

Mr. McConnell is now at Higginsville, Mo., where he is conducting a union meeting, and telegrams were sent to him from Atlanta Wednesday night, telling him of the decision and notifying him of the hope of the members of the local church that he could see fit to accept the offer, which is regarded among churchmen as one of the largest and most important in the country.

The formal call to the pulpit will go out today, asking him to fill the place formerly held by Dr. Len B. Broughton, and which has been vacant since the resignation last fall of Dr. Robert Stewart MacArthur, president of the World's Baptist alliance, who succeeded Dr. Broughton.

Lecturer and Evangelist.

Except for his connection with the Wesley Memorial Methodist church, Mr. McConnell has not been pastor of any large churches in the country, but has devoted his time and work to evangelism and to lecture courses, and he is said to be one of the most successful men known in these two fields.

He now has contracts with a lyceum lecture course, and before he can accept the local call he will have to arrange to break off this contract. It is believed that in case he should accept that he will find no trouble in doing that.

Mr. McConnell has had no stated place of residence since going into evangelistic and lecture work, but owns a plantation of 1,100 acres near Thomaston, Ga., where he and his family spend a great part of their time when he is not in active duty.

He is a man 47 years of age, and decidedly vigorous in manner and full of enthusiasm, and is regarded as an ideal man to handle the enormous work and care for the great amount of detail that must necessarily fall upon the pastor of a church as large as the Tabernacle, with something over 1,200 souls on its membership list.

Greatly Liked at All.

Personally he is a man who is greatly liked and admired by the preachers of Atlanta, and he and his family, which consists of his wife and daughter and three sons, is well known here. His daughter, Mrs. Lester Larkham, makes her home at Hastings, Neb., and one of the sons is an evangelist singer of wide repute.

In selecting the name of a new pastor the board of deacons at the meeting Wednesday night placed Mr. McConnell's name before the congregation and then opened the nominations and asked the members to vote for any man whom they might desire. When the vote was counted, Mr. McConnell had received more than a majority of the votes cast. He was then chosen by a rising vote, and his selection was thus made unanimous.

After this the matter of completing the organ fund was taken up and the remainder of the amount necessary to secure the donation of Andrew Carnegie was secured. Mr. Carnegie will be communicated with and advised of this fact, so that by the time the new pastor arrives the organ will be entirely paid for.

The committee chosen to invite Mr. McConnell to Atlanta consists of the following men: Chairman Boatman, C. W. Hatcher, H. A. Jennings, Dr. William T. Jones and J. W. Awtry.

state, but only to such as meet a certain description."

The cour tthen goes into further discussion of the law, and holds that the act does not have uniform operation throughout the state and is therefore unconstitutional.

A number of taxpayers who have not paid their taxes for last year have awaited the decision with much interest because they may not have to pay the comp under the decision. No decision of the supreme court for a number of years has been looked forward to with more interest as it will probably effect the payment of taxes by a large number of taxpayers in Fulton county. The county commission will meet today to consider the decision and to decide upon future action.

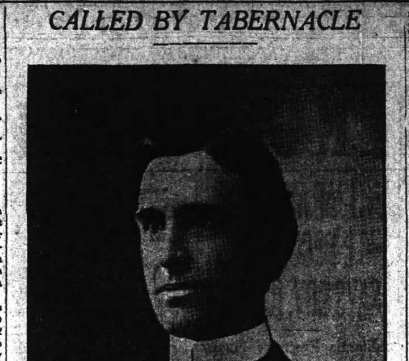
CALLED BY TABERNACLE



REV. LINCOLN M'CONNELL.

ANTI-JAP MEASURE WILL BECOME LAW

for the protection and preservation of our state. In this enactment we have kept ever in mind our national good faith as evidenced by existing treaties; and our desire and anxiety have been to act only in such fashion as would commend us to our sister states and would justify us to our fellow countrymen.

"The objections to our bill are based, first, upon the treaty obligations of the nation, and, secondly, upon the assertion that our act is offensive and discriminatory. The protest to our measure, as your telegram states, comes from the representative of Japan.

Treaties Part of Law.

"The bill that is now before me provides substantially in its first section that all aliens eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States may acquire real property in the same manner as citizens of the United States, and the second section provides that all aliens other than those mentioned in the first section may acquire real property in the manner and to the extent and for the purpose prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such aliens are citizens or subjects and may in addition lease for a period of three years lands for agricultural purposes.

"Thus, we have made existing treaties a part of our law and thus we have preserved every right that any foreign nation by international contract has insisted upon preserving with our national government.

"The treaty of 1911 with Japan, in reference to the citizens and subjects of each country, provides that they shall have liberty to own, or lease and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses and shops; to emply agents of their choice, to lease land for residential and commercial purposes and generally to do anything incident to, or necessary for, trade upon the same terms as native citizens or subjects, submitting themselves to the laws and regulations there established.'

"We assume that the right of Japanese to own real property for the purpose desribed is absolute in our state and we seek to deal only with our agricultural lands. We embody the treaty in our law, and we add to it permission to lease our agricultural lands for the period of three years.

Care to Preserve Good Faith.

"Where such extraordinary care has been exercised to preserve honor and good faith, in the very words of the contract made by the protesting nation with our own and to do more by authorizing leases of agricultural lands, it would seem that we ought not be open to any accusation of violation of treaty rights, or of desire to entrench upon that which belongs alone to the national government, or which might become a matter of international policy.

"By the law adopted we offer no offense; we make no discrimination. No offense and discrimination is contained, it is claimed, in the use of the words 'eligible to citizenship,' and in making a distinction between those who are eligible to citizenship and those who are not. We do not mention the Japanese or any particular race. The constitution of California in 1879 contained its distinction and there never has been protest or objection. The naturalization laws of the United States, long since, without demur from any nation, termed who were and who were not eligible to citizenship. If invidious discrimination ever were made in this regard, the United States made it when the United States declared who were and who were not eligible to citizenship and when we but follow and depend upon the statutes of the United States, and their discrimination as to eligibility to citizenship, we cannot be accused of indulging in invidious discrimination. May I venture to call to you attention the immigration law now pending in congress, which passed both houses of the last congress, where apparently classes who shall be excluded from our country, are described as 'Persons who cannot become eligible under existing laws to become citizens of the United States.'

Nation Is Using the Terms.

"At this moment the national legislature, without protest or objection, indeed, it is published in California, by express consent, is using the terms that are claimed in California's laws to be offensive and discriminatory.

"At least three states in the union have in the past enacted laws similar to the contemplated law of California, and the enactments of those other states have been without objection or protest. That the protest is now made in respect to California, but emphasizes the acuteness of problem confronting California and demonstrates that California is differently viewed than other states of the union, and that if discrimination exists it is discrimination against California.

"We insist that justly no offense can be taken by any nation to this law, and more particularly does this seem to us clear in the instance of a nation like Japan, that by its own law prevents acquisition of land by aliens. It is most respectfully submitted that, after all, the question is not whether any offense has been taken, but whether justly it should be taken. I voice, I think, the sentiment of a majority of the legislature of this state, when I say that if it had been believed that offense could justly be taken by any nation to the proposed law that law would not have been enacted.

No Treaty Rights Violated.

"We, of California, believe firmly that in our legislative dealings with this alien land question we have violated absolutely no treaty rights. We have shown no discrimination, we have given to no nation the right to be insulted in taking offense. In believing with a strong reliance on the justice and the righteousness of our cause and with due deference and respect for and with proper consideration for the feelings and the views of others, we had hoped the authorities at Washington would have seen the necessity and the justice of the law we have been forced to see it as we must see it or be blind.

"And so, with all respect and courtesy, the state of California feels to its bounden duty to its citizens to do that which the interests of its people demand; that which the conscience of its people dictates, that which violates no treaty rights; that which presents no discrimination and that which can give no just cause of offense.

"Your have suggested to me dealy, but this question was very earnestly and fully presented to our legislature and the legislature determined to proceed. My province is to approve or to disapprove the law as presented. Our people, as represented in the legislature, have very clearly expressed their desire for the present alien land bill. The vote in the senate was 35 to 2, and in the assembly 73 to 6. With such unanimity of opinion, even did I hold other views, I would feel it my duty to sign the bill, unless some absolutely controlling necessity demanded contrary action. Apparently, no such controlling necessity exists.

"It is with the highest respect for yourself and the president that I feel my duty to my state compels me to approve the action of the legislature.

"HIRAM JOHNSON,
"Governor of California."

Becomes Law August 10.

With the sending of the telegram today the controversy over the alien land bill is at an end so far as the California administration is concerned. Governor Johnson has until June 16 in which to sign the act and in the normal course of events it will become a law August 10 next.

The only contingency that might arise to check its operation is the threatened referendum petition which Theodore A. Bell, a democratic leader, has said he would circulate against the measure as soon as it was signed.

WASHINGTONS COURSE NOT YET DETERMINED

Washington, May 14.—With Governor Johnson's announcement today that he would sign the California alien land bill in spite of the federal administration's appeal for a veto on account of the Japanese protest, it now becomes necessary for the state department to determine whether it will proceed with the negotiations with the Japanese government on the basis of defending and sustaining the right of the Californians to deprive the Japanese of the right to hold real property, or whether it shall concede that the act violates the spirit, if not the letter, of the treaty with Japan and attempt to find some of nullifying it.

In his message to Governor Johnson, President Wilson already expressed the opinion that the legislation is discriminatory so that the Japanese contention that the act constitutes discrimination in violation of international law and of the spirit of the treaty, is powerfully supported and the petition of the state department made difficult should it be found necessary to champion the cause of the Californians.

The first thing to be done will be to formally inform the Japanese embassy of Governor Johnson's action. In the ordinary course of negotiations, the Japanese government would reply that as it is prevented by the constitution of the United State from negotiating directly with one othe American commonwealths, it must hold the national government responsible for anything that may occur in California, to the detriment of Japanese residens. Probably, with these exchanges as a preliminary, the two governments will begin negotiations in earnest to find some way permanently to adjust the status of the citizens of each country resident in the other on a satisfactory basis.

It is hoped here that this can be accomplished diplomatically by negotiation of a new treaty. If this hope should not be realized, then recourse might be had under the terms of the special arbitration treaty of 1908, to The Hague tribunal, to which the United States government could enforce a finding by that court adverse to the California law is at present a pure supposition.

Secretary Bryan, who was an honor guest at a dinner at the Spanish legation tonight, left for New York on a midnight train to attend the banquet there tomorrow night of the Pan-American society. Consequently, it is not expected anything will be done in pursuance of the negotiations until he returns to Washington Friday.

time to verify our theory."

Governor Johnson's telegram to Secretary Bryan, giving notice of his intention to sign the land bill and outlining the California attitude, was received at the state department tonight after the secretary had left his office. It was made public later at the white house without comment.

WHITE CLIQUE SCORED BY JAPANESE EDITOR

Tokio, May 14.—So as not to embarrass diplomatic negotiations the government continues to discourage the holding of meetings and demonstrations, and last night called off a reunion arranged by the American-Japanese society.

Publicists, however, discuss developments in the controversy over the Californian alien land ownership bill. They declare the California difficulty is merely one proof that the time has arrived to fix the relations between the whate and other races of the world.

In a striking article M. Tokutomi, editor of Kokumin, says that "the white men's clique must be overthrown in the interest of Japan and in the interest of humanity."

Other writers express themselves in a similar strain, asserting that the Japanese are in danger of exclusion from almost everywhere in the world, chiefly through racial prejudice. The solution of the great question involved, it is argued, can only be found in destroying the white men's misconception of the inferiority of the colored people by Japan's attaining the same level of civilization as the west, developing both physical and moral strength along all lines.

This fairly reflects the more conservative opinion in Japan.

ATLANTA BOOKLET WON CONVENTION OF THE SHRINERS

Forrest Adair Says That the Bureau Pamphlet Made it Easy to Defeat Memphis and Buffalo.

YAARAB TEMPLE BOYS REJOICE OVER VICTORY

The Nobles Will Gather Next Year in Atlanta on May 13. The Shriners Homeward Bound.

By Fred Houser.

Dallas, Texas, May 14.—(Special.)—To each and every member of Yaarab delegation is due the victory won by Atlanta in securing the 1914 convention on the first ballot. Since the arrival in this city the Atlantans have been carrying on a vigorous campaign.

Forrest Adair, the potentate, is the recipient of hundreds of congratulations, and it is declared his word is the cause of his home city and temple changed defeat into victory.

The time and place committee recommended Buffalo and June 10-11 as dates of the 1914 meeting, and Forrest Adair met this with a substitute for Atlanta, and this was put to the vote of the house. Atlanta won with a vote of 237, with only 196 necessary for choice. May 13 and 14 are the dates for the next meeting. Rising to their feet the entire Atlanta delegation yelled, "Is everybody happy?" and they were answered, "Sure."

The Atlanta patrol and drum corps and all the nobles from southeastern temples joined with Yaarab in celebrating the victory.

The Bureau Booklet Won.

The booklet issued by the Atlanta convention bureau did the work. When a representative from Buffalo suggested that neither Memphis nor Atlanta had the necessary hotel facilities, this was answered by the splendid showing of Atlanta as evidenced in these booklets, and, it is declared, the enterprise of the Atlanta bureau captured the prize.

This is the second time in the history of the Mystic Shrine order that the council has ever gone contrary to the recommendations of the committee.

Potentate Adair said:

"The Yaarab boys have stuck together from the very beginning. The fact that we raised $75,000 in one day and our splendid hotel facilities were the trump cards in the game.

"Atlanta was backed up by Robert L. Colding, grand master of Georgia, a resident of Savannah. Potentate Bob Travis, of Alee Temple, also did good work.

The splendid manner in which Dallas has handled the convention is due to the fact that one year has been devoted to the preparations by the members of Hella Temple. Atlanta must begin at once in order to keep up to the entertainment precedents set by the Metropolis of Texas."

The council granted a dispensation to the Mobile, Ala., temple and a charter to Montgomery, Ala.

Honolulu Man Wins.

The election of an imperial outer guard, usually the only contest, as the other members of the imperial divan are advanced one office each year, developed nine candidates, and an election was not had until the third ballot, when Jack Jonas, of Oklahoma City, former imperial potentate, withdrew in favor of J. G. Candless, of Aloha Temple, Honolulu, and made his election certain. The Honolulu man had led in the first two ballots, but lacked the necessary majority.

A precedent was broken today when John Boyle, of Utica, N. Y., was nominated for imperial potentate against Deputy Imperial Potentate W. W. Irwin, of Osiris Temple, Wheeling, W. Va. Formerly the custom has been to advance the junior imperial potentate to the highest office without opposition. Irwin won easily, receiving 547 votes to 80 for Boyle.

A new feature in the parade line was added this afternoon when the El Mina Temple band, of Galveston, Tex., appeared in the streets in bathing suits. Some wore women's suits, while others were in male attire. They spent the afternoon serenading the local newspaper offices.

The temple at Calgary, Alberta, recognized in a substantial way the services of Jack Hartsough, of Dallas, who was appointed by Hella Temple as official guide for the Canadians. They deeded him 160 acres of wheat land in their province.

While Al Chyma Temple, of Memphis, lost the 1914 meeting, tonight they showed they were game losers. The Memphis nobles paraded the streets, bearing a black coffin while their band played funeral marches. They then serenaded the Atlanta nobles.

The convention closed tonight with a grand ball at the Garden of Allah at Fair park.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN FLEEING FROM FLAMES

Forest Fires Are Ravaging Wide Territory in Pennsylvania.

Warren, Pa., May 14.—A disastrous fire is sweeping the forests near the city. Flames can be seen high above the hills miles from this city. The fire early this evening reached the edge of Hallton, a lumber town. A special train brought the women and children of Hallton to Warren. Several houses at Hallton have been destroyed and desperate efforts are being made to prevent destruction of the town.

A wide territory of timber land is in flame, while adding to the danger are many blazing oil and gas wells and heavily filled oil tanks. The damage cannot be estimated.

PROPERTY LOSS HEAVY.

Pittsburg, May 14.—A serious forest fire is sweeping Valley township, Armstrong county, and in less than twenty-four hours has burned over an area four miles long and nearly a mile wide. Millions of feet of timber have been destroyed. Two gas wells in the path of the flames are burning. A forest fire which swept Cambria county yesterday burned itself out early today.

Killed by Live Wire.

Danville, Va., May 14.—James Moore, aged 26 and married, was instantly killed here this afternoon when while working upon an electric cable at the top of a pole on Main street he lost his balance and fell against a live wire. Twenty-three hundred volts passed through the body. In order to remove the body it was found necessary to cut the mass of wires upon which the man rested, affecting all motors in the business portion of the city.

Problems of Church Work Discussed in Conferences

"In the mission field we've got to present a solid front against the enemy, regardless of denominations or differences of organization, if we are to succeed in our task of evangelising the world."

This was the leading thought brought out at the Pre-assembly Missionary conference at the Harris Street Presbyterian church yesterday by Joseph Ernest McAfee, secretary of the home mission board of the U. S. A. church. He was backed up by similar declarations by Rev. C. E. Bradt, of Chicago; J. M. Patterson, of Louisville, and David McConaughy, of New York, all of whom are field secretaries in the U. S. A. church.

"We must recognize the great opportunity to us in the Laymen's Missionary movement, which is interdenominational in its scope," said Dr. Bradt, "and we must do nothing to hinder its growth, for it is by combining our forces in undenominational effort that we can accomplish our greatest work in the missionary field."

This was only one of the great questions brought out, however, in the pre-assembly conference, which were held in the various central churches of Atlanta Wednesday.

Hundreds Attend Conferences.

Hundreds of delegates and visitors attended the conferences, and they were all a glb success from the standpoint of the real thoughts and ideas brought forth for mutual discussion.

"Evangelism" was the subject of the conference at the North Avenue Presbyterian church, which all the Presbyterian bodies joined. Conferences on "Education" were held in the First Baptist church by U. S. A. commissioners, and in the Baptist Tabernacle by the U. S. A. commissioners. The college presidents held a conference in the Harris Street church, and at the First Presbyterian church a conference was held on the Laymen's Missionary movement.

The biggest night conference was held in the First Presbyterian, when three of the biggest Presbyterian missionaries in the world made addresses —Rev. S. Hall Young, of Alaska; Rev. James E. Rodgers, of the Philippines, and Rev. William R. King, of Illinois, who has lately returned from a tour of all the mission fields.

At the night session in the Harris street church, when the college presidents' conference united with the Southern Educational conference, President J. Knox Montgomery, of New Concord, Ohio, spoke on "The Bible in the College," and Dr. Thomas S. Clyce, of Sherman, Texas, spoke on "Comity and Co-operation."

Among the other college presidents who spoke at the Harris street church Wednesday, all of whom are prominent in their spheres, were Dr. W. E. Parsons, of Parsons college, Fairfield, Iowa; Dr. Samuel T. Wilson, of Maryville college, Tennessee; President Rendall, of Lincoln university, Pennsylvania, and President F. W. Hinitt, of Central university, Danville, Ky.

At the northern assembly's conference on education, held at the Baptist Tabernacle, about 200 men were present. Dr. J. W. Cochran, secretary of the board of education, was elected chairman, and F. B. McMillen, of Mount Gilead, Ohio, was elected secretary. Among those who made addresses were Dr. W. S. Plumer Bryan, of Chicago, and Dr. Cochran.

Evangelism Banquet at Kimball.

A banquet of the evangelistic committee of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., was held at the Kimball house at 6 o'clock Wednesday night, when Charles L. Huston, of Connellsville, Pa., chairman of the committee, presided.

Addresses were delivered by Dr. H. C. Minton, of Trenton, N. J., ex-moderator of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., who appointed the first evangelistic committee of the general assembly; Dr. Speers, of the Southern church; Dr. C. A. R. Janiver, of Philadelphia, who will leave soon for India to preside over a Presbyterian college there, and Rev. George G. Mahy, secretary of the committee, also spoke. Members from the different churches were present at the meeting.

Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, one of the leading pastors of New York city, also spoke at the meeting on the subject of home missions.

Many Talks on Evangelism.

At the pre-assembly conference on "Evangelism," many splendid addresses were made, among the speakers being Rev. William Russell, of Pittsburg; Rev. Thomas B. Terhune, of Indiana; Rev. Paul Stratton, of Westchester; Rev. C. R. Williamson, of Chester; Rev. John R. Davies, of Philadelphia, and Rev. George G. Mahy, secretary of the U. S. A. evangelistic committee.

Rev. W. C. Crofts, of Rock River, led the discussion Wednesday morning on "A Presbyterial Conference and What Grew Out of It." Rev. R. R. Bigger, of Cleveland, spoke at 1:30 on "Training, Commissioning and Equipping Church Members for Service," following by Rev. H. R. Dobys, of St. Joseph, Mo., on "The Church a Normal Evangelistic Center." The closing address of the afternoon was by Dr. Davies on "The Normal Program of a Pastor."

Presidents Meet for Luncheon.

The "evangelistic" conference took an intermission at noon, when a delightful luncheon was served in the parlors of the church. A number of other luncheons were given at the churches where the conferences were held. The college presidents, who held a meeting Wednesday at the Harris street church, met for a luncheon at noon in Durand's, which was one of the features of the day's program.

Talks were made at this luncheon by Dr. F. H. Gaines, president of Agnes Scott college, Atlanta; Dr. Robert McKenzie, secretary of the college board of the U. S. A. church; Dr. Henry Sweets, secretary of teh educational committee of the U. S. church, and Dr. W. H. Black, president of Missouri Valley college, of Marshall, Mo.

The conference of the college presidents was presided over by Dr. John H. McCracken, president of the U. S. A. board, and addresses were made by President E. R. Reed, of Lenox college, Hopkinson, Iowa; Dr. James E. Clarke, of Nashville, Tenn., associate secretary of the college board, U. S. A.; President S. L. Hornbeak, of Trinity university, Texas, and a number of others.

S. S. Missionary Mass Meeting Will Be Held Sunday Afternoon

In connection with the Presbyterian general assemblies there will be held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Central Presbyterian church a Sunday school missionary mass meeting.

The meeting is unique, in that its purpose is somewhat different from that of the ordinary missionary meeting. It will be an actual demonstration of platform missionary instruction in the Sunday school. Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., general superintendent of the department of Sabbath schools and young people's societies of the Presbyterian church in the United States, will preside.

There will be a brief address on "The Value of Missionary Education in the Sunday School" by Rev. Charles R. Watson, D. D., of Philadelphia. This will be followed by a demonstration of "a missionary opening exercise" for the Sunday school entitled "America's Welcome," the theme of which is immigration. It will be presented by a number of young people of the Central Presbyterian church and is very effective.

AFTER TRIPLE CRIME HE KILLED HIMSELF

Sparta, Wis., May 14.—William Hogue, 70 years of age, beat his aged wife to death with a poker, fatally shot his daughter, Mrs. Guy Wilson, wounded his son-in-law, Wilson, then took his own life by cutting his throat today.

Hogue, angered at the turn he fancied family affairs had taken, first killed his wife, then attacked the Wilsons in their home half a mile distant. He returned to his dead wife's side to commit suicide.

CONGRESS ON DRAINAGE

North Georgia Farmers Will Meet at Commerce.

Commerce, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—This city is to be the mecca for north Georgia farmers who are interested in drainage at a congress to be held here Friday, May 23. Farmers from all the adjoining counties have gone to Gwinnett, to see the great ditch now being cut on Hayner creek, and have been most favorably impressed with the method used. As a result, meetings have already been held in several communities, and organizations are being formed and plans formulated to drain a number of the farms on the creeks and rivers in adjoining counties. With a view of lending encouragement to the movement, a drainage congress is to be held here.

Among those who have promised to be present and take part in the program are Hon. J. V. Phillips, in charge of the drainage investigations of the department of agriculture, Washington, D. C.; Hon. L. R. Alkin, president Georgia Drainage congress, Brunswick, Ga.; Hon. S. W. McCalla, of the geological department, Atlanta; Hon. A. M. Soule, president of the agricultural college, Athens. There will also be a number of others present who have had actual experience in drainage. The indications are that there will be a large number of farmers and land owners present.

DARGAN PRESIDES OVER THE BAPTISTS

Macon Man Re-elected President at St. Louis Convention—Texas Leads States in Money Contributed.

St. Louis, May 14.—The sixty-seventh annual convention of the Southern Baptists formally opened this afternoon. The Rev. Edwin Charles Dargan presided.

Officers for the ensuing year were re-elected with the exception of the vice presidents. The officers are:

The Rev. Dr. Edwin Charles Dargan, of Macon, Ga., president; M. H. Wolf, of Dallas, Texas; the Rev. A. G. Washburn, of McAlester, Okla.; Isaac B. Tigrett, of Jackson, Miss., and William Ellison, of Richmond, Va., vice presidents; the Rev. Dr. Lansing Burrows, of Americus, Ga., and the Rev. Oliver Fuller Gregory, of Staunton, Va., secretaries; George W. Horton, of Louisville, Ky., treasurer, and William P. Harvey, of Harrodsburg, Ky., auditor.

The program provides for three sessions each day, the closing session being next Monday night. The morning session tomorrow will be given up to missionary matters and the afternoon session to the laymen's movement and the young people's work.

It is shown in the statistical reports that Texas led all the states in the convention in the amount of money contributed to both home and foreign missions, giving $71,000 to home missions and $86,000 to foreign missions.

Money Collected by Women.

For the first time in the twenty-five years of the history of the Woman's Missionary union a separate report of that auxiliary was read. In the report it was shown that during the quarter of a century of the union's existence it has raised $2,940,000 for missions and one-tenth of this amount was raised last year.

The general board of governors of the Margaret home, at Greenville, S. C., had an expert valuation of $30,000 placed on property of their institution where homes are furnished for children of foreign missionaries who cannot take them abroad.

The general board of the Women's Missionary Union Training school, of Louisville, reported that the young women trained in that school were now filling missionary posts in eight foreign fields.

The board of governors of the Baptist Theological seminary, of Louisville, re-elected Dr. E. Y. Mullins president. Joshua Levering, chairman of the board, was re-elected. Of new vice presidents chosen, one was E. L. Connolly, of Atlanta.

Among delegates to the convention are four full-blooded Pawnee Indians from Oklahoma.

Foreign Mission Report.

Optimism characterizes the annual report of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist church, submitted to the convention today by Rev. T. B. Ray, of Richmond, Va.

"Baptists were awakened to world-wide responsibilities, and at the same time to the great opportunities before them in the home land," says the report.

"The Southern Baptists now have 116 men and 157 women missionaries in foreign fields, 139 ordained native ministers and 447 native helpers. The membership in foreign fields totals more than 27,000, and nearly 7,500 are enrolled in schools and colleges.

"Missions are located in China, Japan, Africa, Italy, Mexico, Brazil and Argentina. The total receipts of the foreign mission board for the year exceed $500,000. The present mission debt is $76,000."

Considerable space is given to conditions in Mexico.

"The year 1912," reports A. N. Porter, in charge of the South Mexican mission, "was one of the most trying in the history of the Mexican people. Thousands of bandits have overrun the rural districts, leaving ruin and distress. Such conditions have made it nearly impossible to do missionary work except in the cities.

R. P. Mahon, of the Morelia field, says the revolution had its compensation in the work of native pastors, "who have shown by their fidelity in the midst of great dangers that they have a profound interest in the salvation of their people."

"It also seems certain," he continued, "that we are facing greater opportunity than ever the conditions are changing and the people are reading and thinking for themselves as never before."

Telling of the year's work in the south China field, P. H. Anderson reported:

"The recent revolution, resulting in the establishment of the Chinese republic, was the greatest single event in the political history of the world. It was Christianity that made it possible."

Home Mission Work.

A plea of denominational loyalty is made in the report of the board of home missions, submitted to the Southern Baptist convention today.

"Loyalty to one's denominational groups," says the report, "is decried in many quarters and reverence for scripture teaching, and obedience to it is ignored in these quarters. If Baptists are to hold their prestige and influence in lifting up our southern civilization they must be strong enough to withstand such tendencies.

"If the clamor for the weakening of denominational life should succeed, it would not result in a union church, but in skepticism. If our people are brought to think that things are worthless for which their fathers sacrificed, they will come to think that all the rest is worthless.

"As we contemplate the great problems that the south confronts, the negro, materialism, twenty-two million people not in any religious body, the fearful cheapening of human life, the more than 3,000 churches that have no houses of worship—as we think of these things, we long to be empowered to project a program that shall be positive, courageous, adequate and triumphant."

The home mission board reports that it closed the year's work free from debt.

Sunday School Board.

Emphasis of the doctrinal character of Christianity is urged in Sunday school work in the report of the Sunday school board, submitted to the Southern Baptist convention today.

The Sunday school lesson committee's work in this connection and its work in graded lessons for the intermediate department is commended.

The report concludes:

"We need to give emphasis to credal character and doctrinal conviction as having practical virtue and value in everyday Christian living. A lack of this is our deficiency and weakness, and leaves the present day Christian subject to every kind of doctrine or whatever fad or fancy, if only it be labelled 'religious,' or 'Christian,' or 'church.'"

ELECTION IN U. S. A. AWAITED IN SUSPENSE

Dr. S. S. Palmer and Dr. Maitland Alexander Loom Up as Candidates for Moderator.

By Dr. S. S. Gilson.

The campaign for moderator of the U. S. A. assembly ran lively all day yesterday and far into the night. The friends of the five candidates put in their best efforts, equally confident of success. But it is quite generally conceded that the neck to neck race will be between the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander of Pennsylvania and the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Palmer of Ohio. It is estimated that there will be no election on the first ballot but at its close the other three candidates will drop out of the race.

There is as much difference of opinion about the different candidates as there was in Apotolic days when "Some men for Paul, some for Apollas and some for Cefnas.

Some of the theological authorities hold that in the present contest Dr. Alexander represents Paul, Dr. Palmer represents Apollas and Dr. McKibbin represents Cephas, and the Rev. Dr. Johnson the "Evangelists" generally. Dr. Smith represents Texas.

The treat of today will be the nomination speeches, which will be made by the picked orators of the church. There have been instances when some unsophisticated commissioner has jumped up prematurely and broken the slate of the selected speakers, but this announcement will prevent such an occurrence today, as every commissioner is reading "The Constitution."

The lives are quite closely drawn. The friends of Dr. Alexander figure on the support of the Synods of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, with considerable strength on the Pacific coast.

The friends of Dr. Palmer "pull one over" on the other candidates by sending a circular letter to the commissioners, modestly presenting the claims of their candidate, representing him as a typical Ohio man. Some of the Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia men have no pleasant memory of the Ohio men as they knew them fifty years ago. Dr. Alexander is a graduate of Princeton Theological seminary, and Dr. Palmer of McCormick. Both men are popular and eloquent, and it's a case of "Greek meet Greek," with all the bravery of the Greeks in the Balkan war.

Both men are brilliant and handsome and have been eminently successful in the pastorate.

A STRONG CANDIDATE

DR. S. S. PALMER,

Pastor of Broad Street Presbyterian church, Columbus, O., is one of the strongest candidates for moderator of the U. S. A. assembly, many declaring that he or Dr. Maitland Alexander will be elected.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Washington, May 14.—Senator Chamberlain's resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution to give the ballot to women was ordered favorably reported today by the senate woman suffrage committee. Chairman Thomas and Senator Owen, democrats, and Senators Jones, Sutherland and Clapp, republicans, voted for the resolution, while Senator Catron, republican, voted against it.

When the resolution is reported by Chairman Thomas within a few days, an effort will be made to have it taken up during the present session if tariff legislation does not interfere.

"Ham" Lewis' First Bill.

Washington, May 14.—Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, introduced today as his first bill a measure to establish a national wage commission to provide a system for insuring a minimum wage in all work pertaining to the federal government, public service corporations and all concerns doing an interstate business. The president would be authorized to appoint a wage commissioner in each congressional district, who would handle appeals charging violation of minimum wage regulations. The bill would appropriate $500,000 for expenses and salaries of such a commission.

Man Who Received Surrender of Atlanta Here As Delegate

Half a century has gone by since Captain John W. Laughlin, as adjutant of the union forces, received into his hands the papers containing the formal surrender of Atlanta—in April, '65.

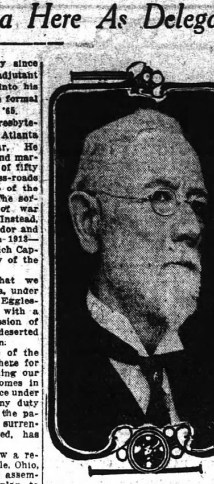
Today, as a delegate to the Presbyterian assemblies, he returns to Atlanta for the first time since the war. He walks her magnificent streets and marvels at the transformation of fifty years. The battle-scarred, cross-roads village has burst forth as one of the greatest cities of America. The sorrow and the desolation of war have disappeared forever. Instead, there reigns over the city splendor and happiness as she surrenders in 1913—once more to the army with which Captain Laughlin comes—the army of the Presbyterians!

"It seems but yesterday that we marched from Macon to Atlanta, under the command of Colonel B. R. Eggleston, and upon reaching here with a large union force took possession of this dilapidated and almost deserted village," says Captain Laughlin.

"Then was just at the close of the war, however, and we stayed here for about two months before turning our faces finally toward our own homes in the north. As adjutant of the forces under Colonel Eggleston, it fell to my duty to receive the box containing the papers that carried the formal surrender of the city. Time, indeed, has wrought a marvelous change!

Captain Laughlin, who is now a retired business man of Barnesville, Ohio, comes as a lay delegate to the assembly. He and his two sons plan to make a tour of the south immediately following the close of the assemblies, going over all the old battlegrounds in Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi where the aged veteran, Captain Laughlin fought in the '60's.

Dozens of other delegates and visitors to the assemblies are making their first visit to Atlanta since the war, and it is one of the most unique gatherings, by far, that the world has ever known.



CAPT. JOHN W. LAUGHLIN.

U. P. Assembly in Atlanta With View to Organic Union

By Dr. S. S. Gilson.

The United Presbyterian assembly, the first to formally organize in Atlanta, has not a single church in all Georgia. The body comes here to become acquainted with the Southern Presbyterian church with a view to organic union.

Some difficulties are anticipated in thecourship.

The United Presbyterian church is opposed to "hymns of human composition," believes in restricted communion and is opposed to secret societies, although it has practiced secrecy with regard to the plan for union which it has refused to divulge to the church in the face of strong request for its publication before the meeting of the assemblies.

But it has leaked out that all these difficulties can be adjudicated.

It is understood that the crucial trouble will be over women speaking in the church, practiced by the United Presbyterians, but frowned upon by the Southern Presbyterians.

Neither church questions the orthodoxy of the other, and each is anxious to become a national organization.

Another question which will cause warm discussion in the ordinarily very harmonious United Presbyterian church is that of the publication of a church paper by the board of publication. The church paper that was left on the Christian Instructor and brought to Pittsburg, and is issuing it in the face of The United Presbyterian, an old established organ of the church. The question is whether the general assembly will indorse such an enterprise, and there is vigorous difference of opinion on the subject.

Apart from these two subjects the proceedings of the United Presbyterian assembly will be very peaceful. The main strength of the body is in Pittsburg and vicinity, and that city is known as the United Presbyterian Jerusalem.

Mrs. Dodd's Estate Will Give Education to Many Poor Boys

Declaring that the entire interest, money on her estate, estimated at $100,000, after specific bequests, aggregating something like $15,000, have been cared for, shall be used for the education of deserving young men without means at Mercer university, at Macon, Mrs. Barbara C. Dodd, widow of the late Phil Dodd, for years one of Atlanta's leading business men, directs Charles E. Currier, president of the Atlanta National bank, her executor, to see that the terms of her will are carried out.

Mrs. Dodd's will is now in the keeping of the ordinary of Fulton county, and will come up for probate in solemn form next month.

The will provides that the estate Mrs. Barbara C. Dodd leaves, after the specific legacies have been cared for, shall pass into the hands of the trustees of Mercer university for administration under the terms she names—that the state shall be held intact and that only the interest on the estate shall be used. The use of that interest is to be for the education of deserving young men without means who will take an education and who may seek it through Mercer university. No strings are tied to the gift. The will simply provides that the students who receive the benefit of the Barbara C. Dodd fund shall be supported by the interest on that fund while attending Mercer, and when they are given their diplomas they owe nothing to the Dodd fund or to the Mercer university.

BRYAN'S GRAPE JUICE DEFENDED IN REPORT

Detailed Reports of U. P. Committees Will Be Presented at Session Thursday Afternoon

In the report of the committee on temperance of the United Presbyterian assembly, which will be made at the session in the Central Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon, Secretary of State Bryan's decision to serve grape juice instead of liquors at his state dinners will be lauded.

"This seems almost as if the millenium had arrived in Washington," says the committee's report.

At the Thursday afternoon session detailed reports of all the committees of the United Presbyterian assembly will be made, including the committee on home religion, the committee on industrial conditions, the committee on rural churches, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and the committee on temperance.

The temperance report, which also includes observations on other reforms, is one of the most interesting reports of the entire assembly. It discusses the tendency of the times, and while it takes an optimistic view of the progress of the country, it warns the people against allowing the public conscience to grow lax in the observation of the fundamentals of religious law—such as temperance and the observation of the Sabbath.

"The general, nation-wide movement on behalf of the Sabbath is still making progress," says the report. "The postoffice department of the government and large manufacturing and railroad corporations are increasingly responsive to the efforts to secure for their employees one day or rest in seven and the Sabbath is coming into favor with working men and working men's organizations. The most disheartening feature of the Sabbath problem is the disposition on the part of the church people to let down in their ideals of Sabbath keeping. The automobile and moving picture and other forms of recreation threaten to rob it of its sanctity and make of it a holiday rather than a holy day. Our highest church courts should take this matter under most serious consideration and unite in some concerted effort for Christian people. The forces of greed and pleasure opposing the Sabbath are still active in all our commonwealths in their efforts to repeal Sabbath laws and legalize all forms of Sabbath desecration and in some sates, as Ohio and Indiana, have carried things largely their own way. The Christian people must be on guard, or otherwise while the general movement for the rest day in the making progress, the laws for the protection of the day will be so emasculated as to defeat the whole movement. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

"It is an encouragement to onte the progress of the work carried forward by the National Reform association, as the past year has been the greatest of its fifty years of existence. Almost the entire evangelical Christian force of this country is now lined up with the movements, whereas a few years ago there was not only much indifference, but in some denominations positive opposition. It will hold in Portland, Ore., June 29 to July 6 of this year, its second great world's Christian citizenship conference, which will bring together representatives from all parts of the world and promises to be an epoch-making gathering in the matter of reform. Its work is especially important at the present time to safeguard our institutions, especially our public schools, against the assaults of Romanists, Jews and infidels to drive out the Bible and completely secularize them. It should have our moral and financial support and prayers."

FUNERAL OF W. W. DRAKE WILL BE HELD TODAY

Funeral services over the body of William W. Drake, aged 48, who died Tuesday at a local sanitarium, will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of his father-in-law, C. W. Hunnicutt, of 348 Spring street. The interment will be private at Oakland.

The following friends of the family have been requested to act as pallbearers: Charles Winship, Thomas J. Peeples, Sanford Gay, J. Frank Meador, Hugh L. McKee and John S. Clarke.

Mr. Drake is survived by his wife, one son, W. C. Drake, a sister, Miss Mabel Drake, and a brother, Loyd Tate, of Wetumpka, Ala.

All of Mr. Drake's boyhood days were spent in Atlanta, although he was born at Midway, Ala. His father, Dr. William Green Drake, was for a number of years one of Atlanta's leading physicians. Mr. Drake entered business here at an early age and for sixteen years was prominently connected with the Clarke Hardware company. About ten years ago he moved to Denver, Colo., and from there to Spokane, Wash. In both places he met with success in the builders' hardware business.

As a man he was liked and admired for his personal qualities of which his unfailing courtesy and fair dealing in busines and private life were striking features.

RATE ADVANCE SOUGHT BY EASTERN RAILWAYS

Formal Application Is Made to Commerce Commission by Fifty-Two Lines.

Washington, May 14.—Eastern railroads took the first step toward an attempt to increase their freight rates, when representatives of fifty-two lines east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac conferred today with the intrastate commerce commission on a formal application to reopen the "eastern advance case," which was decided against the railroads two years ago.

The application in effect is to rehear the request for increases which the commission denied about two years ago. The old application asked for a uniform 5 per cent advance on all through freight on the basis of the New York-Chicago rate. The case was a noted one, commonly known as "No. 3400."

Today representatives of the fifty-two eastern railroads concerned in the old case appeared before the entire membership of the interstate commerce commission to ask re-hearing which, if granted, would substantially be an application for a 5 per cent increase.

At the conclusion of the conference it was announced that the commission had received the petition and would take it under advisement.

The petition recited, in brief, the efforts of the eastern lines three years ago to obtain permission from the commission to increase their freight rates. The commission held then that the carriers had not satisfactorily established their need of increased revenues and refused permission to advance rates. The commission, however, "indicated a willingness to reconsider its conclusions in the light of future developments in the operations of the carriers."

The petition submitted today declares that the carriers "are prepared to show that the cost of conducting the business of the carriers has been and is being steadily increased by increases in capital charges; increases in wages; increases in taxes; increased burdens imposed by legislative enactment; elimination of grade crossings; and in various other respects; and that existing rates are inadequate to afford just and reasonable compensation and return to the carriers, and are unreasonably low in view of the value of the service afforded thereunder."

The commission promised to take up the subject at an early date, but gave no assurance that, even if the case is reopened, it would be able to conduct the necessary public hearings before the summer recess.

HE DIED BY SHOOTING INSTEAD OF GALLOWS

Carson City, Nev., May 14.—The first legal execution by shooting in Nevada took place at the penitentiary, when Andriza Mierovich was put to death for the murder of John Gregorivch, in Tonopah, on May 14, 1912. Mierovich chooses shooting in preference to the gallows.

"IRISH JIMMY" SENT TO NORTH CAROLINA

New York, May 14.—"Irish Jimmy," otherwise William L. Dunn, under arrest here for postoffice robberies along the Hudson river, was turned over to the McAdenville, North Carolina, authorities today because the police believe that in North Carolina Dunn's conviction on a burglary charge will be more certain. "Irish Jimmy," they say, belonged to a gang which looted postoffice safes from Maine to California. The conviction of Dunn, the police believe, will effectively break up the gang, two other members of which now are in prison.

STRIKE OF CONDUCTORS FACED BY 48 RAILWAYS

Chairman Thomas Says Strike Will Follow Refusal of Demands.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—"Conductors on forty-eight eastern railroads will present their demands for an increase in wages of from 15 to 19 per cent July 1, and if the roads refuse to arbitrate, a strike will be ordered within a fortnight following," said F. C. Thomas, general chairman of the eastern association, today. He is here attending the biennial convention of the Order of Railway Conductors. Both Mr. Thomas and A. H. Garretson, president of the O. R. C., insisted that it had been agreed that no action on the matter would be taken at this meeting or at the convention of trainmen in San Francisco May 15.

"About the middle of June a vote will be taken among the membership," said Mr. Thomas, "and we expect it will be overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. Then on July 1 we will go before the railroads with our demands. All we ask is arbitration. The other two associations, the western and the southern, now have in operation the wage rate which we are seeking."

So far the business meetings of the 6,000 or more O. R. C. delegates who are attending the convention which opened Monday, have been devoted strictly to routine matters.

DR. R. M. RUSSELL MADE MODERATOR

President of Westminster College Heads the United Presbyterian Assembly—Election Last Night.

With the words of that famous old hymn,

"O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,"

ringing through the Central Presbyterian church last night, the fifty-fifth annual assembly of the United Presbyterians was formally opened, this being the second time in its history that it has convened south of Mason-Dixon's line.

Dr. Robert M. Russell, president of Westminster college, Wilmington, Pa., was nominated by Dr. C. F. Proudfit, of Des Moines, for moderator, and was elected by acclamation, succeeding Dr. H. H. Bell, of San Francisco, the retiring moderator.

Dr. Russell is one of the best and most widely known ministers in this denomination. He was pastor of the Sixth United Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh the wealthiest and largest church of this denomination, for twenty years

Will Speak Several Times.

Dr. Russell resigned in the face of unanimous resolution of the congregation to become president of Westminster college, their denominational college at New Wilmington, Pa. He will be heard here at several of the meetings of the assembly.

In his speech of acceptance Dr. Russell plead for a closer union with the spirit of the Christ. "There has never before been such an aggregation of the visible forces of Christianity," he said. "Let us not spend the most of our time in thinking of organic union with our sister bodies, but rather in getting nearer to Jesus Christ. Let us go back to the simplicity of Christ, until we shall feel that oneness with Him, and then we shall in truth be one great church together. Then our doctrinal lines will be interwoven and our strife shall cease."

Two gavels were presented to the new moderator. One, presented by Dr. R. A. Hutchinson in the name of the home board of Pennsylvania and prepared by an elder of the first United Presbyterian church west of the Alleghanies.

The other was presented to Dr. Russell personally by Dr. George A. Beattie, of Atlanta, who formerly was numbered with the United church. This gavel was made from a solid piece of wood taken from the grounds of the First Theological seminary, at Service, Pa., and was banded with Georgia gold. At the close of his speech of presentation Dr. Beattie suggested that in case of the Presbyterians uniting the name United Presbyterian be used, which brought forth hearty applause from his audience.

Dr. Russell answered both speeches in a pleasing manner and spoke feelingly of his appreciation.

Dr. Bell's Address.

In his farewell address as moderator Dr. H. H. Bell delivered a strong plea for the attainment of the living presence of Christ. While optimistic in his views, yet he sounded a warning against the growing materialism of the United States and plead with his hearers to advance the kingdom of God in the hearts of men.

"Too much of our religion and preaching and worship today deals with a dead Christ to the utter dishonor of the living Christ," he said. "We need the living Christ for daily help.

"Much is said and written about getting back to Christ. It would be better and more to the point if we would stress getting up Christ. Somehow I feel that wisely God has hidden from mortal view the place of the cross and of the tomb in order to concentrate faith and vision and soul-clutching thought upon the living Christ.

"If we will get and grip the fact of the living Christ, then shall this assembly be His glory; then shall we leave a blessing in every home in Atlanta whose hospitality is so generous, whose love is so tender. Then shall we as a church face our task in America, whether east or west, north or south, with a power and an inspiration that will help win our beloved land to Him whose we are and whom we serve."

U. S. A. ASSEMBLY MEETS IN TABERNACLE

Broughton's Tabernacle, located on Luckie street, just beyond Spring, where assembly of Presbyterian church, U. S. A., will be held.

In Broughton's Tabernacle, the immense auditorium and institutional church built in Atlanta by Dr. Len Broughton, now of London, England, the 1913 assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., will be held. It will be the 125th general assembly of this body, its organization having taken place in Philadelphia in the year 1789.

Being the largest of the four bodies of the Presbyterian church, its gathering in Atlanta required a large and adequate auditorium, and since the Baptist Tabernacle offered the greatest conveniences, as well as adequate space, this was chosen for the meeting place.

The U. S. A. church is the only one of the four which announces in advance its complete docket of addresses and reports for the entire assembly. Sessions will be held at the Baptist Tabernacle every morning and afternoon during the assembly, but there will be no sessions there in the evening on account of the big union gatherings at the Auditorium, except Sunday evening, when there will be a joint meeting also at the Tabernacle on college work.

The complete program for the meetings in the Tabernacle is announced as follows:

Union Platform Is Proposed For All Presbyterian Bodies

By Dr. S. S. Gilson.

There is sure to be a very warm discussion on relation of the assemblies to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The action of this body at its late meeting in Chicago, "in its avoidance of those cardinal truths of the gospel which are the real bond of union among the churches," has caused widespread dissatisfaction.

The Southern Presbyterian church already proposes to secede from the federation and the other assemblies are contemplating similar action.

The Rev. Dr. William S. Plumer Bryan, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, in Chicago, and a commissioner to the U. S. A. assembly, and a member of "the old guard," feels that the existence of the federation is most seriously threatened, and he thinks it is worth saving and that an effort in this direction should be made.

Dr. Bryan was long a minister in the southern church, and many of his many friends in that body pledge him their support.

He has outlined a "declaration" which is to be submitted simultaneously in the three assemblies, which is as follows:

"That man does not live by bread alone, but by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever, and which is infallibly revealed in the Scriptures;

"That man's greatest need is to know God and to be at one with Him through His Son, Jesus Christ;

"That man has sinned and come short of the glory of God, and is subject to eternal death;

"That man can be recovered from sin and death only by the love of God, unmerited, sovereign and manifested in the sacrifice on the cross;

"That man's first step toward a better life is the resolve, 'I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto Him, Father, I have sinned against Thee.'

"That man's new life begins with the forgiveness of his sins through the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus, and the renewal of his nature by the Holy Spirit, which new life manifests itself in a marked change in his outward conduct;

"That truth is in order to godliness, and that godliness is profitable in all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come, producing not only piety and devotion toward God, but kindliness and sympathy toward men, honesty and purity, courage and endurance, industry and invention;

"That the charitable, philanthropic and progressive movements of the day owe their beginnings and their growth chiefly to those men and women who fear God, and keep His commandments, whose God is the God of their whole life;

"That, beyond the civic and the social, lies the eternal and the heavenly, as the true goal of the human spirit, and that our noblest duty is to look and to labor for that city which hath foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God;

"That these and like truths, committed of God to the keeping of His church, are so potent for human good that Christian men, both individually and collectively, must, at all costs, maintain and proclaim them, and apply them to the present needs of men, lest, in the great day, they be found unfaithful stewards of the mysteries of God, and be themselves cast out of the kingdom;

"That Christian fellowship and co-operation thrives upon and is nourished by these and like truths, and that any religious fellowship which requires the denial or the avoidance or even the dilution of these truths is delusive and dangerous."

Dr. Bryan is convinced that the adoption of his plan will settle the Union seminary trouble, the graded lesson muddle and other perils of the same character.

No subject of more vital importance will come before the assemblies and a hot debate is anticipated.

Dr. Bryan is of fighting stock from the days of his illustrious ancestor, the Rev. Dr. William S. Plumer, so long a famous professor in the Columbia, S. C., Theological seminary. He is himself a native of Pittsburg, where so many of the prominent men of the U. S. A. assembly were born or have lived.

SUGAR SENATORS BEGIN TO BATTLE

They Use "Original Wilson Man" to Attack the President and the Supporters of the Underwood Bill.

Washington, May 14.—Using an "original Wilson man" from Michigan with a fluent pen for an oracle, the anti-free sugar democrats, led by Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, assailed the Underwood sugar schedule in the senate today despite strenuous efforts of Senator Simmons and other democrats to stop the flow of the attack.

Republicans enjoyed the efforts of the democratic leaders to prevent the reading of a long letter submitted by Senator Ransdell, written by Lewis C. Rowley, of Lansing, Mich., in which free sugar advocates were characterized as "accursed, unpardonable apostles of democratic faith," and the free sugar schedule as "a boomerang to knock out the democratic party."

Democrats Aided by eRpublicans.

With republican votes Senator Ransdell was aided in reading the lengthy epistle before the senate as a part of the argument against the proposed sugar tariff. It precipitated lively discussion between Mike Louisianan and Senators James, Myers, Simmons and other democratic leaders. In his plea from Michigan, President Wilson's attitude on sugar, the party platform pledges and the president's campaign pledges not to hurt any legitimate industry were recalled, the writer declaring "there is almost imminent danger that in his almost hilarious enthusiasm for the democratic ideal, the president 'try to do too much.'"

The democrats also were forced to hear from this same trenchant Michigan protestant that "the statesman of party leader who, in formulating important legislative measures, does not take in consideration the psychological effect as well as the ultimate practical results of these measures is a raw hand at the business." He said he did not believe President Wilson was "that kind of an immature leader." "I refuse to believe," he continued, "that the president will commit the party to radical courses which—however sound theoretically—are calculated to alarm and alienate large numbers of voters in many of the most populous agricultural sections of the country."

Republicans applauded when the senate clerk read: "In free trade, too, inscribed on the party gonfalon, which erstwhile bore the immortal watchword of free silver!" And again when the admonition was sounded that the democratic party better effect changes moderately and safely rather than hastily and at the dictates of a caucus too many of whose members leave their private judgments and consciences where the Mussulman leaves his shoes—outside the door."

"Accursed Apostles."

The letter described the leading democratic exponents of free sugar as "accursed, unpardonable apostates of democratic faith, licking the footsteps of the predatory rich, hell-bent on ignoring the best of the living, even if the American standard of living and the standard of democratic principles are lowered with it."

Before the reading was half completed, Senator Reed objected and forced a vote, which was lost, republicans voting with some democrats against it.

The clerk continued to read the letter, predicting death for the American sugar industry when the Underwood schedule becomes effective.

Senator Ransdell denied that the people of Louisiana, clamoring to be heard, were being treated fairly. Senators James and Simmons and others referred to hearing by the ways and means and Hardwick committees.

Admitting that Louisiana interests had had limited hearings, Senator Ransdell continued:

"When a man is going to be put to death, he is usually allowed the last word. We grant that to men condemned to death on the gallows. Now, when the great party of which I am a member is about to put to death the greatest industry in my state, our people want to be heard again. We want the last word."

The Louisiana senator read a letter from a fire insurance company to a Louisiana agent, ordering him to cancel policies on sugar houses, because the tariff was to be reduced and eventually eliminated.

Penrose Injects Levity.

Senator Penrose later injected levity into the proceedings when Senator Simmons, in behalf of the finance committee, tried to get an agreement for a vote on the question of public hearings on the Underwood bill. The Pennsylvania senator emphatically denied that he had any idea of conducting a filibuster on the issue. He had asked for public hearings, he said, because he conscientiously believed that they should be held and he felt sure that the senator from North Carolina had not entertained any idea that he ever had captained any "legislative piratical craft."

While Senator Simmons was endeavoring to fix a time for a vote the time for the consideration of the matter expired and again it went over until tomorrow, when the democrats will endeavor to bring the reference of the bill and the republican public hearing amendment to a vote.

Discussing the attitude of the democratic party toward the sugar tariff, Senator James asked Senator Ransdell if he did not think that the platform of the party gave fair warning to Louisiana. Mr. Ransdell emphatically replied, "No," and the Kentucky senator then proceeded to read from the platform indorsing what the party did last year and demanding reductions to reduce the cost of living. In this connection the Louisiana senator referred to a statement in the Rowley letter, which said, "Neither in his campaign for the democratic nomination nor for his election did Mr. Wilson pledge himself to give the country free sugar. On the contrary, whenever he was asked about his position on the sugar tariff he distinctly declared that he was against any tariff changes that would injure or destroy any legitimate industry."

VICTIM OF MURDER PREPARED TO DIE

six days before she was killed."

The dating was April 20, 1913.

Grand Jury Meets Next Week.

The mystery of Mary Phagan's murder will go before the grand jury next week on either Thursday or Friday. Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey made this announcement yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, just after he had finished examining fifty or more witnesses.

The names of Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the National Pencil factory, and Newt Lee, negro night watchman of that plant, will be presented, as ordered by the coroner's jury at the inquest held last week. Both are in the Tower, to which they were remanded Wednesday, May 7.

The solicitor refused to state whether or not he considered the evidence at hand sufficient to merit a bill of indictment. However, he did declare that, from present prospects, no other name or names would be presented to the jury.

New Evidence Expected.

Asked why he had not submitted the case earlier, Mr. Dorsey said that it required time to arrange the evidence in his possession, sift out the unimportant and prepare the important. Eight more days will be occupied in this work. In the meantime, according to the solicitor, new evidence is expected.

William J. Burns is coming to Atlanta, Thomas B. Felder last night received a cablegram of acceptance from Mr. Burns, who is now in Europe, through his New York office. He will come to this country on the first steamer after hearing from Atlanta.

Placed in Pocketbook.

The identification slip was found in the pocketbook which Mary Phagan had carried daily. It was left at home on the day of her disappearance because it would not hold the amount of money she expected to obtain at the pencil plant in which she was slain. She carried the much handbag of her sister, Ollie, which has never been found.

The solicitor prizes the identification slip. It is likely to cast a new aspect on the mystery, he says, and is expected to unearth new evidence. The writing is plain and in the characteristic legible hand of the murdered child. It reads:

"April 20, 1913.

"My name is Mary Phagan.

"I live at 146 Lindsey street, near Bellwood and Ashby streets."

The slip was written only six days prior to her disappearance. It is the solicitor's belief that she probably had been threatened with violence previous to the murder which has startled the entire southland. Either that, or she had experienced a vivid premonition of the tragedy which closed her life.

Unlike Young Girl.

"It is utterly unlike a girl of her age to prepare means of identification," said the solicitor. "That she would meet with accident or be killed in any manner undoubtedly never entered her healthy young mind. It is decidedly apparent that something happened beforehand which predicted her death.

"It is possible that her murderer once before threatened to kill her. Perhaps she was warned. She could have received a strong premonition. That she expected death is evident from the placing in her pocketbook of the identification card. It was dated six days prior to the date of her murder. Her parents say she was never known to possess such things as means of identification."

Added mystery was woven around the case Wednesday by the statement from the wife of Officer William Gheesling, an embalmer of Bloomsfield's, the undertaking establishment to which the girl's body was carried from the basement of the pencil plant.

Dead for Many Hours.

Gheesling stated positively his opinion that she had been dead for ten hours, or probably more, prior to the discovery of her body. Rigor mortis had resulted.

Dr. H. F. Harris, of the state board of health, is said to have corroborated Gheesling in his statement, that the girl had been dead for a period of between 10 and 16 hours.

This will be important testimony, Mr. Dorsey says, and Gheesling will probably be summoned before the grand jury.

Also it is said that Dr. Harris, who performed the autopsy when the body was exhumed at Marietta several days ago, declared that she had been assaulted at the time of her murder. Dr. Harris would not verify the report when seen by a Constitution reporter last night. Neither would he deny it.

I am bound by the solicitor to say nothing whatever of my connection with his investigation," he said. "Not until my report has been submitted to his office will it be officially known what is the result of my examination.

Report Not Yet Submitted.

Mr. Dorsey said that the report had not been submitted, and would not be put in his hands until he called for it. He also would not tell at which time he will take possession of it.

The Constitution reporter who had charge of the specimens of Mary Phagan's handwriting appeared before the solicitor Wednesday morning, and after turning them over to him, made a stenographic statement of the source of the specimens.

They were obtained from J. W. Coleman, stepfather of the Phagan girl, he said, several days ago. Mr. Coleman, stated the reporter, had declared that they were genuine samples of his daughter's script. Although it is said the solicitor bases a new and convincing theory on the handwriting, he will not talk. The rumor is that he has discovered new clews with which he expects to gain evidence by comparison with the handwriting specimens.

Suffragettes Terrorize England

SCENES FROM THE SUFFRAGETTE WAR IN ENGLAND

Threats of a real reign of terror to be conducted by the militant suffragettes, combined with daily outrages, are causing widespread alarm in Great Britain. The situation is getting to be almost unbearable for officials and nonmilitant residents. After the failure of the suffrage bill in parliament the suffragettes renewed their campaign with bomb and torch. It is estimated that fully $5,000,000 damage has been done. Scotland Yard is taking extreme measures to stop the disorders, but no one can tell what will happen next. London is really in a panic over threatened damage from bombs following the finding of the infernal machine at St. Paul's. The anxiety of the British authorities over the threat of the suffragettes to eclipse their many recent destructive acts was specifically displayed when Premier Asquith and the first lord of the admiralty, Winston Spencer Churchill, accompanied by their wives, left Waterloo station on the Southwestern railway to proceed to the coast in order to join the admiralty yacht Enchantress, on which they are to make an extended cruise in the Mediterranean. A large number of naval aides-de-camp, government departmental secretaries and railway officials surrounded the party formed by the cabinet ministers and those who had come to bid them farewell. Beyond these there was an outer circle of detectives to protect the ministers from any undue attention on the part of suffragettes or their male supporters.

WEBB LAW INVALID IN SOUTH CAROLINA

So Palmetto Supreme Court Holds—Liquor Is Ordered Delivered.

Columbia, S. C., May 14.—The supreme court of South Carolina rendered an opinion today declaring that in the absence of specific legislative prohibition against the importation of liquor from another state, the provisions of the Webb bill were not applicable to this state. The court held that the purpose of the Webb bill was to prevent any infraction of state statutes under the guise of interstate traffic.

The case in which the opinion was rendered was a petition for injunction against the refusal of the Southern Express company to deliver two cases of liquor consigned to a South Carolina point. The court granted the injunction.

Victory for Brewers.

Kansas City, May 14.—A test case under the Webb law, instituted by Kansas City, Kans., officials last week, when the police were ordered to arrest every driver of a brewery wagon found on the streets of that city, ended in victory for the brewers today, when the case of Lewis Segelbaum, a beer wagon driver, was dismissed in the municipal court.

Seven drivers had been arrested and hundreds of cases of beer confiscated by Kansas City, Kans., officials, who held that breweries in Kansas City, Mo., could not deliver beer across the line unless the beer was ordered and paid for at the point of shipment. In the case today the consignee testified that the beer being delivered by Segelbaum had been paid for on the Mississippi side of the line.

LANIER FOUND GUILTY OF KILLING HIS BABY

Jury's Recommendation to Mercy Means Life Sentence For Waycross Man.

Waycross, Ga., May 14.—(Special)—After remaining out for four hours the jury late tonight returned a verdict of guilty with recommendation to mercy against W. C. Lanier for the murder of his day-old baby boy. This means a life sentence for Lanier. It is stated tonight that the case against his wife may be taken up tomorrow or Friday.

Throughout the day the court room was packed as it has never before been packed and a large number waited tonight to hear the jury's verdict. Judge Parker returned to the court house after supper. Lanier, who is just 22 years old, heard the reading of the verdict with apparently no emotion. He has appeared indifferent to the seriousness of the charge against him from the first, maintaining that the trial would show that he was not guilty.

Case Against Wife.

Considerable interest has been taken in the probable defense to be made in the case against Mrs. Lanier. From the statements by attorneys he is asking for a postponement because of the illness of Mrs. Charles N. Lanier, mother of the man found guilty tonight. It seems that Mrs. Lanier's defense will be that if she killed the baby, it was while she was in such a condition that she knew nothing of what she was doing. The testimony of Dr. Lattimer, which Judge Parker would not consent to the jury hearing, was that Mrs. Lanier asked that he get the breath out of the baby.

Lanier's straightforward statement that he was out of the room hunting clothes and returned to find the baby dead was accepted, but some doubt was cast on it when the boarding house keeper testified to visiting the Laniers' room and finding the door locked, Lanier himself opening it for her. This was on the afternoon the baby was born.

Testimony of Doctor.

Dr. J. H. Lattimer, the physician attending Mrs. Lanier, was the principal witness. He stated that he returned to Mrs. Lanier at her boarding house on Tebeau street three hours after the birth of the child and found the baby missing. He was informed that the child had died and Lanier had removed the body. His suspicions were aroused and he reported the case to the health officer, who caused Lanier's arrest on a charge of violating a city ordinance. Later, Sheriff Pittman arrested Lanier.

Testifying about the marks found on the baby's body, Dr. Lattimer said the skull appeared to have been fractured by a hard blow, and the throat marks resembled finger marks. He swore that the baby's body was not bruised in any way, and when he left the child appeared in a healthy condition.

Dr. A. Fleming, for the defense, testified that the marks on the head could have been natural. M. L. Moore, a liveryman, testified that Lanier ordered a buggy from him late Saturday, April 5, using an assumed name. The negro delivering the team swore Lanier carried a small package with him to the buggy.

On the stand Lanier stated that the reason he acted as he did about the burial of the baby was that he was not financially able to get an undertaker.

BOMB SENT JUDGE BY SUFFRAGETTES

Militant Women Contine Terrorism in England. Bombs Also Found in a Passenger Train.

London, May 14.—A business-like bomb, addressed to Henry Crutis Bennett, the police magistrate, was delivered by a letter carrier at Bow street police court today. The package was marked "immediate," but disliking the looks of it, the cautious court officer took it outside and plunged it into a pail of water.

When the package was opened it was found to contain a tin tobacco box, bound with wire and filled with gunpowder, shot and a cartridge. Attached to the cap end of the cartridge was a nail which, if it had been struck, would have fired the bomb and exploded the contents.

Suffragette bombs were found today in one of the passenger cars of a train running between Kingston-on-Thames and London, on the Southwestern railway. This makes the third outrage of the kind on the same line within two months. On the train's arrival at Waterloo terminus, the conductor noticed in one of the compartments three parcels which aroused suspicion. On investigation two of them were found to contain tin canisters filled with combustibles and wrapped in suffragette placards. No explosion occurred and the bombs were handed over to the police.

A militant suffragette "arson squad" destroyed a large unoccupied residence, the Highlands, at Sand Dale-on-Sea, near Folkestone, on the English channel, last night. Post cards address to the "Dishonorable Prime Minister" and to the "Dishonorable Reginald McKenna, home secretary," were left about the premises. There was a post card bearing the words, "We hope this is not a poor widow's house."

School boys are helping militant suffragettes in their reign of terror. Several "bombs" which, on examination, turned out to be dummies, have been treated to the suffragette fuse.

Operations Extensive.

Striking evidence of the extensive operations of the militant suffragettes and the bad effect on the women's cause of the outrages committed by them was given today on the resumption of the hearing at Bow street police court of the charges against the suffragette leaders. They are charged with the infringement of malicious damage to property.

Those who occupied the prisoner's inclosure were Miss Harriet Rebecca Kerr, Miss Agnes Mary Parker, Miss Barret, Miss Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenny, Mrs. Laura Lenn and the analytical chemist, Clayton. The case against General Sir Percy Flore Drummond was postponed until July, owing to her illness.

Letter carriers and postoffice officials testified as to the great damage done to the mails by chemicals and other fluids poured into the public letter boxes.

The former business manager of The Suffragette testified his services were dispensed with by the militant society primarily. Miss Annie Kenny considered the latter was paid too much. She thought it better that only women should conduct the paper.

As to the loss of circulation by The Suffragette, he told Mrs. Pankhurst the decrease was due to the letter box raids, but she said that could not be possible, because when the women were most militant they were most successful.

Archibald Bodkin, treasury counsel, attempted to elicit from the accountant who audited the books of the womens social and political union what the income of the so-called secret service fund of $1,250,000, of which the newspaper. The Suffragette, announced $900,000 had been raised. The accountant was unable to tell.

The accountant produced the salary book from which it appeared the pay of the militant movement leaders was not princely. Miss Annie Kenney received $21 weekly. "General" Mrs. not princely. Miss Annie Kenny received $21 weekly. "General" Mrs. Pankhurst, $17.50; Mrs. Beatrice Saunders and Miss Rachel Barrett, $16, and Miss Laura Lennox, $10. Miss Christabel Pankhurst, who is living in Paris, drew $875 in the last four months, according to the books.

Suffragist Is Bankrupt.

A receiving order was issued by the bankruptcy court today against Frederick Pethick Lawrence, a prominent and wealthy suffragist, who recently resigned at his connection with the militant suffragette's society. The order was made on the application of the director of public prosecution because Mr. Lawrence refused to pay the costs of the prosecution of himself, his wife and Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst on a charge of conspiracy last May. The outstanding amount is $2,040. The court appointed an official receiver to take charge of Mr. Lawrence's affairs and thus, although well to do, he will have to place his business affairs in the hands of the official until the government's claim has been settled.

On leaving the court Mr. Lawrence remarked

"I am now a financial cipher, but I am out for a fight in the public interest against a wholly unjust law which gives the executive the power to strike a blow at any man who sides with a revolt by charging him with the costs of his prosecution."

GUATEMALA YIELDS TO BRITISH DEMANDS

Washington, May 14.—Private advices received here today say President Estrada Cabrera, of Gautemala, has acceded to demands of the British government for a settlement of the long standing British claims. The London foreign office recently issued an ultimatum to Cabrera, giving him until tomorrow to settle and a British warship was put on the way to Puerto Barrios to emphasize the demand.

Secretary Bryan, in an effort to help Guatemala out of her embarrassment, had expressed to the British ministry his belief that she would extend the time named in her ultimatum.

No reply yet had been received today, but the settlement announced in the private advices probably ends the incident, which threatened to force development of the Wilson administration's attitude toward foreign debts of the Central American republics.

The Guatemalan minister today confirmed the earlier advices and announced that under the arrangement with the British bondholders, "one dollar out of every one dollar and a half export tax paid on each quintal of coffee would be allotted to the payment of interest on the external debt." The minister declared the adjustment would aid in carrying out the proposed loan of $20,000,000 with New York bankers with which Guatemala expects to pay off the English debt, refund its current system and establish a national bank.

HE USED BANK'S FUNDS BUT WAS NOT GUILTY

Columbus, O., May 14.—Holding that facts as stated in the indictment did not constitute the crime of converting money to his own use, Judge Kinkead today ordered a verdict of not guilty in the case of Frank E. Baxter, former superintendent of state banks. Baxter was placed on trial yesterday upon an indictment charging him with having used $37,000 of funds of the Columbus Savings and Trust company to pay off a note to the estate of the late John W. Gates. The funds, it was shown, were returned with 4 per cent interest.

23 YEARS IN THE PEN FOR STEALING $3 WATCH

Topeka, Kan., May 14.—Arthur Patten, who, at 38, has spent twenty-three years in Kansas prisons, left the penitentiary here today, paroled to a farm "to become a citizen." At the age of 7 Patten stole a $3 watch and was sent to the state reformatory as an incorrigible. Paroled after four years, he entered a farmer's house in Osage county, where he had vainly sought work, and ate food he found in the pantry. Caught, he was compelled to finish his reformatory sentence and then suffer sentence to the penitentiary for second degree burglary.

Governor Hodges acted promptly when he learned the circumstances. "Society has committed a crime against Patten," he said.

TETTER ON HANDS, HEAD AND FACE

Skin Would Break and Scale, Burned and Itched. Face a Fright. Lost Nearly All of Hair. Could Not Put Hands in Water. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Route No. 2, Rustburg, Va.—"I caught tetter in my hands, head and face four years ago. It came first with itching roughness and then the skin would break and scale up and then sour and wrinkle up. It would break and crack open in great gashes and bleed freely. It burned and itched and I would almost scratch the flesh off. When the itching ceased the burning was dreadful. My face was a fright. It would crack open and bleed at night. I lost nearly all of my hair. I could not bear to put my hands in water. I tried all remedies that could be mentioned and received no relief. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment a week I could wash, scrub and do any kind of work without any pain or bleeding. Now my face, hands and head are perfectly well and my hair is growing very nicely. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me." (Signed) Miss Anna Moses, Apr. 15, 1912.

Why not have a clear skin, soft white hands, a clean scalp and good hair? It is your birthright. Cuticura Soap with an occasional use of Cuticura Ointment will bring about these coveted conditions in most cases when all else fails. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

SHOWERS ARE DUE IN ATLANTA TODAY

Atlanta Gardeners Are Hoping That the Rain Will Be a Heavy One.

Rain is due to fall today in local thunder showers which will be practically the first rain of May.

While predicting showers for this section, the weather man explains that the showers will be local ones and that if Atlanta should get but the edge of a shower that very little rain would be received, while that section which gets the main body of a shower will receive a good rain.

Up to the present only .04 inches of rain has been recorded since the first of the month and in April only .84 inch fell, although the normal for that month is considerably over 5 inches.

Gardens and flower beds have been suffering in Atlanta, as all the same conditions have held throughout practically the entire state. Reports from many sections in the state bear out the fact that no rain has fallen during this month.

In Valdosta conditions are possibly worse than in any other section. The only rainfall from there since March is what the local observer calls a "trace," and in weather bureau parlance that means so little that even the delicate instruments do not measure it.

THREE YOUTHS PRISONED FOR ATTACKING VETERAN

Athens, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—J. H. Barrett, J. S. Black and Jesse Black, three young white men of Talmo, in Jackson county, were this morning committed to jail in Jefferson, in default of $500 bond each, on charges of assault with intent to murder J. H. McIntyre, an old confederate soldier, 70 years of age.

It is charged that the three young men went to the home of the veteran who entertained them and gave them a drink or two all around. When they began acting boisterously and the old man remonstrated with them, it is claimed, they attacked him with a rock, pocket knives and a cudgel. He was gashed fearfully in the head and had an arm slit open from the elbow to the wrist. He fled from the house and went after a nearby justice and bailiff and in a short time took out warrants for the three. He went home and it is said that the trio returned to his house and had begun again to assault him with various weapons.

SHEPPERD IS AGAIN ELECTED PRESIDENT BY SONS OF AMERICA

Americus, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—The annual convention of the state camp, Patriotic Orders Sons of America, assembled here today, with 21 camps represented. President J. E. Shepperd presided over the business session this morning and afternoon, which were entirely of routine nature.

In the annual election of officers President Sheppard was for the fourth time elected to that position. G. Lester Williams, of Americus, was elected vice president, and B. F. Brimberry, of Albany, secretary.

The state camp marched in a body at noon to the auditorium of the high school, where appropriate exercises were held, the camp presenting the school a monster United States flag, which was accepted by Miss Susie Stallings.

The annual meeting closed with a banquet tonight at the armory.

YOUNG MACON MATRON HAS "MASHER" ARRESTED

Macon, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—George Ellis, a traveling man whose home is in Raleigh, N. C., where he has a wife and two children, was arrested late last night on complaint of Mrs. Leola Johns, a pretty young married woman, who complained to a policeman that Ellis had followed her from the Dempsey hotel to the corner of Fourth and Mulberry, where she was going to meet her husband, and after speaking to her, asked her to go to a Fourth street hotel with him.

The hearing was started before Recorder Daly this morning, but was not finished, the recorder granting the request of Mrs. Johns' husband for further time to prosecute Ellis. Johns, who is an insurance collector, states that tomorrow, when the case is resumed, he will produce a number of witnesses to substantiate his wife's charges.

A number of Macon merchants were in court this morning to testify to Ellis' good character, among them being David Waxelbaum, Frank Benson and Charles Wachtel.

Mrs. Johns tearfully denied that she had encouraged the attentions of Ellis in any way. She said that when she walked past the Dempsey, Ellis spoke to her, and lifting his hat, bowed to her. Then, she says, he followed her.

Cordele, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—It has been concluded that the National Surety company, bondsmen for Ambrose B. Stannard, contractor for Cordele's new postoffice building, will take over the building and complete it. For the reason that he did not complete the structure by the time given in the contract, the work was recently taken out of the hands of Mr. Stannard. R. C. Carson, of New York, representing the bondsmen, and N. V. Perry, who is in the employ of the United States treasury department, were in Cordele yesterday.

TIFTON CITY COURT MAY BE ABOLISHED

Tifton, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—The board of commissioners of Tift county have passed resolutions calling upon R. C. Ellis, representative from this county, to introduce a bill at the next session of the general assembly calling for the discontinuance of the city court of Tifton The board also requested that a petition be circulated in each district in the county calling for the abolishment of the city court and that this be done immediately in order that the measure may be introduced at the coming session of the general assembly.

The city court has been a bone of contention for some time, talk of its abolishment having been frequent. On recommendation of the grand jury the books of the county officers were audited and, according to the reports of the commissioners, this audit showed that the city court was contesting the tax payers of the county $5,082.36 a year, or $423.53 per month. The expenses of the county are constantly increasing and as it was the purpose of the county commissioners to cut expenses, they recommended that the city court be abolished, it appearing to them that it would be cheaper to have an extra term of superior court.

BIG PARADE FEATURES KNIGHTS TEMPLAR MEET

Annual Address Is Delivered by Grand Past Commander James L. Mayson.

Columbus, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—With between three and four hundred Sir Knights in attendance, the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Georgia, began in Columbus today.

The opening feature early this afternoon was a long and imposing street parade, many commanderies marching behind a band to the militant air of "Onward Christian Soldiers." The uniforms, banners and perfect rythme of the marching body made a beautiful spectacle.

At the close of the march an exhibition drill was given by the Chickamauga team, which is composed largely of army officers, and this was pronounced as the most perfect drill ever seen at a meeting of the Georgia Grand Commandery.

Opening exercises were held at the asylum of St. Aldemer Commandery, where addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor L. H. Chappell and Walter W. Curtis, in behalf of the local commandery. A. J. Miller, of Waycross, responded to these addresses.

Late this afternoon the Sir Knights were guests at a barbecue at Wildwood park, at which the ladies of members of St. Aldemer Commandery were hostesses.

Tonight the annual templar service was held at Trinity Episcopal church. Grand Prelate Trop Beatty, of Athens, presiding. The annual address was delivered by Grand Past Commander James L. Mayson, of Atlanta. A very fine musical program was given.

The meeting will last through tomorrow, when officers will be elected.

CENTRAL ENGINEER RUNS BLAZING TRAIN TO WAITING FIREMEN

Cuthbert, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—Casey Jones has nothing on Asa Clarke, the one-eyed engineer of the Gaines branch of the Central of Georgia, who yesterday added to the laurels he had already won during his career of nearly fifty years. Finding that two of his cars of cotton were blazing, Clarke cut loose his passenger coaches at Colson, ten miles from here, notified the Cuthbert fire department to be ready at the station, and then threw open the throttle.

On time to the minute he drove his train into Cuthbert, where the waiting laddies made short work of the fire, which, by that time, was burning merrily.

STUDENTS OF MERCER BEAT IT IN NIGHTIES AS DORMITORY BURNS

Macon, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—Fire that is supposed to have originated from a defective wire demaged the main dormitory of Mercer university to the extent of about $8,000 this morning at 1:30 o'clock before the fire department could reach the building.

Shouts of fire from the students sleeping directly over the kitchen there over 300 students in a tumult as they hastened to pack their belongings in suit cases and hurl them from the windows to the streets.

Attired in nothing but their night robes, many of the boys remained on the campus until day this morning. Practically all the property of the young men was saved, but the building was badly damaged by smoke and water.

Professor J. F. Selless announced this morning that over 200 students would have to get their meals elsewhere until repairs were made.

FARMERS OF JACKSON BLUE OVER SITUATION

Commerce, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—This section has entered the fifth week of a drought that has prevailed here since April 12. Conditions are not yet serious, as there is yet time to plant and make a crop, but there is much anxiety, and farmers are getting blue over the situation. Fully one-third of the crop is yet unplanted, and the land cannot be prepared until it rains. Not more than 10 per cent of the crop planted has come up and business on the farms, for the most part, is at a standstill. The oat crop, which was by all odds the most promising we have ever had, is already badly damaged.

A PRESBYTERIAN EPOCH.

To the representatives of the four great national Presbyterian bodies that begin their deliberations here today The Constitution extends cordial welcome.

Atlanta, as host, greets Atlanta's distinguished guests, with the assurance that every resident of the city feels keenly the privilege of entertaining the men who are foremost in one of the greatest religious denominations of the world.

The social side is impressive and pleasurable, but to him who looks below the surface it is subordinate to the historic significance of the occasion. Here today in the city of Atlanta is born what is really a new epoch in the Presbyterianism of America. The gathering in one city at the same time of the four great assemblies of the church is of itself unprecedented; to that extent, it writes history, and Atlanta is honored in furnishing the theater for that particular chapter. But the meaning of the event is even more portentous than this. For, however dimly foreshadowed in the future, regardless of time or manner or process, the meetings that begin today inevitably lay the foundation for an ultimate union of all the branches of this great denomination. That is really the new epoch in Presbyterianism, opening outward beyond the horizon of today and spreading further than the vision of this time may see. And it is a great honor that to Atlanta should fall the privilege of furnishing the birthplace for an event that will loom tremendous in the religious history of our country.

The keynote of the meetings is treated elsewhere by Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, of Atlanta. He shows the denominational significance. He indicates tellingly the historic significance of these four bodies bridging the gap of fifty years and meeting in Atlanta. And he also frankly expresses the belief that the assemblies now in process must eventually lead the way to a complete unification.

The Constitution echoes that belief. It is thoroughly logical. These four bodies are together now on cardinal principles. Is it not natural to expect that eventually they will bridge the gap of minor details, as they have bridged the gap of the years and its traditions, and stand four-square to the world in one great organization? The final chapter may not be written in a year, or even a decade. Evolution, and this is evolution, is slow and not spectacular in its processes. But the organic amalgamation of these churches is a foreordained development of the future. One in faith, in desire, in consecration—it is inevitable that they should conquer subordinate differences and become one in the mighty work of regeneration to which they are all commonly committed.

It is therefore a new epoch in Presbyterianism that is this week being staged in Atlanta. And may we not with justice hope that it is also a new epoch in religion throughout America? For the drift throughout the nation is steadily toward the amalgamation of different branches of denomination, into one cohesive, fighting whole. Is not the shadow of Presbyterian unification, cast in Atlanta this week, also the shadow of union between the different branches of all the nation's great denominations?

KEEPING UP-TO-DATE.

The board of police commissioners has recommended to council that $500 be appropriated for the installation of the Bertillon system at police barracks. The appropriation should by all means be granted and the system inaugurated without delay. The larger cities in the country maintain the Bertillon system as a routine part of their equipment. It is an invaluable aid in the detection and identification of criminals. There can be little question that failure in the past to employ it in Atlanta has led to the escape of important outlaws. On the side of comity alone, not to mention self-preservation, Atlanta owes it to the other cities with which she exchanges information about criminals to be as well equipped for their identification as they are.

Finger-print identification should also go hand in hand with the Bertillon system. The faintest finger-pressure upon paper, even though the prints are invisible to the naked eye, leave impressions due to the small quantity of oil in all healthy flesh. Dusting over the surface of such paper with lamp-black or other substances will, it is alleged, "bring up" the finger-prints of the person who handled it. Had such methods been employed in the Phagan case it is conceivable the authorities would have been in possession of the finger-print of the person who wrote the famous notes, the most positive form of identification, since no two finger-prints in the world are alike. As it is, many persons were allowed to handle these notes, and the original finger-prints are hopelessly blurred, just as the footprints of one person would be wiped out by the footprints of many others subsequently tramping over the spot.

This merely illustrates the first importance of giving those responsible for the detection of crime every possible aid from science. That such has not been the rule with Atlanta's police department is an omission that should be at once remedied.

DELIVERING THE GOODS.

The Fulton county reformatory, so much in the limelight recently by reason of the Ollie Taylor case, is a reformatory that reforms. That fact speaks in a testimonial published elsewhere from no less a person than Judge John T. Pendleton, of the Fulton superior court. Judge Pendleton also confirms, as will be seen, the use by The Constitution of the phrase "indeterminate sentence," in referring to the Taylor case.

Judge Pendleton refers only incidentally to the excellence of results achieved by the reformatory, but his praise is convincing. Atlanta and Fulton county should experience gratification over the possession of an institution engaged successfully in the business of transforming boys with crooked tendencies into law-abiding and productive citizens. Taking Judge Pendleton's reference as a basis of estimate, there is no doubt whatever that the reformatory returns to the state many times the sum spent upon it in citizens who contribute to rather than make demands upon the wealth of the community.

The success won by the Fulton county reformatory for boys simply emphasizes what can be accomplished by a similar institution for wayward girls. The college women of the state are agitating along these lines. They hold that Georgia owes it as much to herself to prevent prostitution among the girls of the state as crime among its boys.

ATLANTA'S SHRINE VICTORY.

By an overwhelming margin over her rivals, Atlanta has won the convention of the Shriners for 1914.

The result was foreshadowed from the start, not only for the reason that Atlanta was behind the movement, but because also of the reputation of this city which has gone to the four quarters of the country. The last doubt as to success was removed when, at the close of a day's whirlwind campaign, Atlanta had largely oversubscribed the amount needed to put her in the convention race.

For the victory, great credit is due Forrest Adair, potentate of Yaarab Temple, who led the fight from the start until its successful conclusion on the floor of the convention. His enthusiasm and that of his able lieutenants enlisted the response of all Atlanta. The battle became one in which the civic pride of the city was at stake. And the city answered in a manner entirely satisfactory.

There is little doubt that the convention of 1914 will be one of the most important and largely attended in the history of the order. Atlanta's spirit of hospitality, her splendid hotel equipment and her facilities for entertaining insure the Shriners an experience unique in their careers.

The Coming of Love.

Love's coming! Sing, birds, in the blossoms so sweet!
Rain, blossoms, in storms at his beautiful feet!
Winds, toss the violets over his way,
And God guard the night and give light to the day!
The blossoms are blowing, the brown bees are humming,
And a voice in my soul whispers sweet:
"He is coming!"

II.

He is coming! (What joy doth the message impart!)
Like a rose toss him here to my heart—to my heart!
Soft winds of the southland, from over the sea
Kiss the sails of the sweet ship that bears him to me!
The daisies are blooming, the wild bees are humming,
And thank God for the music: "He's coming! He's coming!"

OLD JOHN

By Philip Weltner, Secretary Prison Association of Georgia

It was a trifling offense. Old John himself did not know exactly what it had been about. He was driving his wagon and accidentally ran into a woman and scared her pretty badly. Besides, so the officers charged, Old John was on the wrong side of the thoroughfare. On this was based the information on which he had been tried, convicted and sentenced. The sentence was in the alternative—$50 or eight months. But Old John never had been able to save anything out of his meager wages. His family was a big one. You or I might have paid the $50 and gone on about our business. Old John was too poor. So that high and noble thing, called "the law," took him away from his work and set him in the midst of a gang of thieves and knaves to pick and dig and shovel.

If the offense was so trifling that $50 was a full compensation for the fault, why should this grizzled headed old darkey serve eight months on the gang? Counting his labor at a dollar a day profit to the county, the state would be exacting $240 in work instead of $50, which the state had declared would be sufficient to wipe out his guilt.

The great state of Georgia is robbing Old John of $190. I know one white boy who is serving ten years for a robbery of not half that much. The governor, the judge, the solicitor, the sheriff, you and I are robbing Old John of $190. We are robbing him not because he is able to stand it, but because of his poverty. In the meantime we are taking food out of the mouths of his children and clothes from their backs.

The state told Old John: "Pay us $50 right now, or give us $240 worth of work." This is the system of which we are all a part, to which we all subscribe or tacitly assent. We put Old John in prison for less than a petty theft and rob him, because he is helpless.

The law should know neither rich nor poor. If we mean to let the rich off with a fine, let the poor have a chance to pay it, too. The law will say that Old John did have a chance. That is a lie. A man with a withered limb cannot climb a ladder, nor a pauper pay a fine. To offer a ladder to the one is hypocrisy; to offer the alternative of a fine to a pauper is worse.

We need in Georgia a probation law by which the judges can allow petty offenders their freedom conditioned upon paying off in equal installments the money fines the courts impose.

We ask is crime decreasing. It never will until righteousness upholds the arms of justice, and the law cease to exact its pound of flesh.

A Fragment of Sappho.

Blessed as the immortal gods is he,
The youth who fondly sits by thee.
And hears and sees thee all the while Softly speak and sweetly smile.

'Twas this deprived my soll of rest,
And raised such tumults in my breast;
For while I gazed, in transport toss'd,
My breath was gone, my voice was lost.

My bosom glow'd; the subtle flame
Ran quickly through my vital frame;
O'er my dim eyes a darkness hung,
My ears with hollow murmurs rung.

In dewy damps my limbs were chill'd,
My blood with gentle horrors thrill'd;
My feeble pulse forgot to play,
I fainted, sunk, and died away.

New News of Yesterday

How Roscoe Conkling Kissed a Fat Receiver.

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

When the late General Stewart M. Woodford was United States district attorney for the southern district of New York his attention was called by his superiors at Washington to an action which had been brought against the postmaster of New York seeking recovery of some seventy thousand dollars for alleged infringement of patents in connections with the use of stamping apparatus.

General Woodford, in after years, used to tell the story partly to illustrate how near United States Senator Roscoe Conkling came to receiving a handsome fee for professional services for the government.

E. J. Edwards.

"The postmaster at New York city was summoned, about the middle of Grant's second administration, to answer to a charge made by the professed owner of a patent for a machine used in cancelling postage stamps," said General Woodford. "The postmaster was charged with having infringed the patent. The case was referred by the court to a referee to fix the damages. He found that, provided there was absolute infringement, the postmaster at New York was personally liable for about $75,000. He could not have paid that sum, and his bondsmen might have been called upon to pay that amount.

"The case was tried before the late Judge Wheeler, then sitting at Burlington, Vt., which was in the New York district. He found for the plaintiff.

"The matter was becoming very serious. The case against the New York postmaster was admittedly a test case. If the courts found him liable, then action could be brought against practically every postmaster in the United States. It was estimated that the total amount which might be recoverable would reach something like half a million dollars, perhaps even more.

"The decision in the district court was handed down shortly after General Hayes became president. He was appealed to and he realized the very great importance the matter was to the government and to the postmasters of the United States. He at once directed that an appeal be taken to the supreme court.

"President Hayes said: 'I wish you would go to the office of the postmaster general and lay this matter before him. I myself will at once ask the attorney general, Charles Devins, to look into the matter.'

"Then, after reflecting a moment, the president said: 'I suppose the postmaster at New York would like to retain able counsel.' The postmaster was present when President Hayes said this. His reply to the suggestion was that he would like to retain Senator Roscoe Conkling to argue the appeal before the supreme court.

"'I thought you would name Senator Conkling,' President Hayes said. He smiled rather significantly because he knew that Senator Conkling was at personal odds with him, yet he intimated that in his opinion Conkling was just the man to retain for this purpose. The retainer would probably be not less than ten thousand dollars.

"With the authority of the president to retain Senator Conkling, Postmaster James went immediately to the postmaster general's office. He was just beginning to lay the matter before the postmaster general when a message was received from President Hayes urging him to return immediately to the white house.

"He drove rapidly to the white house and he found the president and General Devins, the attorney general, in consultation. The president said: 'General Devins is so greatly concerned over this matter that he believes it to be of such great importance that he will himself argue the appeal before the supreme court. He believes that the case has not a leg to stand upon. As General Devins will argue the case, it will not be necessary for you to retain Senator Conkling.'

"Probably had there been a delay of half an hour in the conference between the president and the attorney general, Senator Conkling would have been retained. Attorney General Devins did argue the case before the supreme court and the other side was represented by ex-Attorney General George F. Williams. The supreme court, by unanimous opinion, decided against the plaintiff and the postmasters of the United States and their bondsmen, who had been in great anxiety lest they be compelled to pay heavy damages, were, of course, greatly relieved when they learned what the decision of the supreme court was."

Diphtheria.

Bulletin Issued by State Board of Health.

Diphtheria is a highly contagious disease and is easily transmitted from one person to another. The cause of the disease is a germ too small to be seen by the naked eye. This little germ is shaped somewhat like a dumbbell, and is known as the Klebs-Loeffler bacillus. Every case of diphtheria comes from some other case. A person may contract this disease by coming in contact with the patient, by breathing the air in the room of one sick with the disease, by coming in contact with carpets, bedclothes, books, toys and other articles removed from the sick room, or by coming in contact with some one who has been exposed to the disease, but who may not themselves develop diphtheria. These people act as carriers. If such a person should lower his or her resistance to disease by exposure during bad weather, loss of sleep, too free use of alcohol, etc., the germ may attack them and cause the disease; whereas, they would never have developed diphtheria had they not weakened their constitutions. Diphtheria may be carried also by dogs and cats that have been exposed to the disease.

Infected milk may convey diphtheria. Diseased tonsils, and adenoids, and a catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membrance of the nose and throat makes one more liable to the disease. Filth and general insanitary conditions predispose to diphtheria, as they lower a person's resistance to disease.

Diphtheria is a preventable disease, and if it spreads from house to house some one is to blame. By isolating the cases properly, and disinfecting the premises thoroughly following the disease, and observing a few other simple rules advised by the board of health the spread of this malady can be prevented. Diphtheria usually attacks children, but no age is immuned. One attack does not protect a person from another attack.

It is both a local and a constitutional disease. The local effects are caused by the direct action of the poisons from the germs; the constitutional symptoms by the absorption of and circulation in the blood of the poisonous products of the germs. The most frequent sites of the local manifestations are the tonsils and soft palate and the nose and throat.

Local Symptoms.

After a variable length of time following exposure to the disease, usually from two to seven days, there is a general feeling of discomfort, chilliness, fever and sore throat. The fever may reach 103 degrees within the first twenty-four hours. The severity of all the symptoms is variable; the amount of membrane present varies from a small patch no larger than the finger nail to an amount sufficient to cover the tonsils and soft palate, and to extend up into the nose and down the throat into the lungs. In the form which involves the tonsils, which is perhaps the most frequent form, there is more or less redness and swelling of the tonsils and the neighboring structures. One or more grayish-white patches of false membrane make their appearance and may remain small in extent or may spread over the palate and extend upward into the nose and downward into the throat. When the nose is involved there is often a discharge from this organ of mucus and serum, which is sometimes tinged with blood. Nasal diphtheria is an extremely dangerous form, but of all forms of diphtheria the laryngeal form is the most deadly. In this type the membrane forms in the larynx, or so-called "Adam's apple," and unless the patient is promptly and properly treated death by suffocation soon comes on. This kind of diphtheria is often spoken of as "membranous croup."

Constitutional Symptoms.

The constitutional symptoms consist of headache, vomiting, fever, rapid feeble pulse and sleepiness deepening into stupor and sometimes followed by death. As the local manifestations subside the constitutional symptoms improve, but convalescence is often slow and tedious. Great care should be taken during convalescence, as well as during the active stages of the disease, as sudden death may result from the feeble heart action if the patient make too great or too sudden muscular effort, such as getting up in bed suddenly, walking across the room, etc. Inflammation of the heart and kidneys, broncho-pneumonia, inflammation of the internal ear and paralysis affecting various parts of the body are the most frequent complications and after results of diphtheria.

The prevention and treatment of diphtheria will be taken up in our next article on Sunday. Suffice it to say here that antitoxin should always be given and given early.

High time to be thinking of presents for the beautiful June brides.

At last the country has received real education in tariff revision.

At last we have a vice president who can talk six days on a stretch and then some on Sundays.

The World's Mysteries

WHAT BECAME OF FATHER GAPON?

Readers of this article may remember the excitement created only a few years ago when a Russian army of working and oppressed people marched to the palace square in St. Petersburg, headed by Father George Gapon, with the intention of demanding a new constitution. And how they were allowed to enter the Narva gate, past long lines of troops before they were closed in upon and many of them massacred while the rest fled in great disorder.

Father Gapon was among those who escaped, and for a time he was compelled to live in Switzerland, and in various other parts of Europe, seeking in every way to help his luckless fellow-countrymen. Finally, in disguise, he ventured back to St. Petersburg, but he was eventually discovered, and in April, 1906, only a little more than a year after the attempted revolution, he entirely disappeared.

What became of him has never been known. Many Russians believe that he is still alive. One report was to the effect that he was hanged secretly on April 10, 1906, by four revolutionists who heard him admit that he was spying on his former revolutionary colleagues in behalf of the Russian police. Another report had it that he had gone to Valdai, on the lake of that name, and had entered a monastery there. The government gave out that he had betrayed the people's cause and was acting in conjunction with the police.

In May of the same year it was believed that the fate of Gapon was apparently cleared through the discovery of a corpse, which was identified as the former priest, which was found hanging in the upper chamber of a lonely villa in the summer suburb of Oserki, Finland. Decomposition of the face made positive identification, however, difficult, but it was noted that the clothing resembled those worn by the missing labor leader.

There was another story to the effect that the government had spirited the priest away and confined him in a fortress prison, and still another that he had escaped to Constantinople, and that a cablegram had been received from him by friends in this country after the date of the supposed lynching.

Is Father Gapon alive and safe? Did he turn traitor and die at the hands of those whose cause he had championed? Or is he languishing in a Russian fortress or in a monastery cell? No one is able to answer these questions satisfactorily.

The name of Father George Gapon became world-wide following that bloody Sunday in St. Petersburg on January 22, 1905. He was born in a remote village in the Russian province of Poltava, his father being a illstated serf. His birthplace was a miserable little hovel, and yet he was a born leader, and finally brought about him such a great following as to shake the throne of the czar.

For many years he labored among the working people in his efforts to better their conditions, and, finally, in 1904, when there was a great strike among Russian workmen, Gapon's influence shone forth in a wonderful degree. The people loved him, they trusted him, and they followed wherever he would command.

It was arranged that on this fatal January 22 the workingmen, with their wives and children, should march to the palace, not in a threatening fashion, but as rightsous supplicants for justice, and that the petition they had framed should be handed to the czar. The procession started an orderly body, and students, revolutionists and idle onlookers swelled the ranks. The soldiers drew them into a trap. When they had them entirely surrounded they fired volley after volley into the ranks of the marchers, and great numbers of them fell dead in the snow. The survivors of the ill-fated expedition scattered like panic-stricken sheep.

Father Gapon escaped, as noted before, and the immediate dread of a Russian revolution had passed. The heart and soul of the whole movement fled with him. He was so closely watched thereafter that he was never able to give the Russian soldiers and police much trouble. It would be interesting to know what eventually became of this exceptional man. He must either be dead or secretly confined out of harm's way, or he would surely have been heard from since 1906, the last any one has ever been able to account for his whereabouts.

Sentence of Ollie Taylor Was An "Indeterminate" One

In an editorial on the Ollie Taylor case Tuesday morning The Constitution stated that the boy was given an "indeterminate sentence."

The point having been raised that the sentence was not "indeterminate," but that he had been incarcerated for the "remainder of his minority," The Constitution referred the matter to Judge of the Superior Court John T. Pendleton, who heard the application for habeas corpus by which it was sought to release the boy from the reformatory. Judge Pendleton specifically affirms the position of The Constitution to the effect that the boy may be paroled at any time subject to good behavior.

The Law.

Judge Pendleton's communication is as follows:

"Atlanta, Ga., May 13, 1913.—Editor Constitution: I am in receipt of your favor in which you ask whether Ollie Taylor was sentenced for the remainder of his minority; and, second, whether I stated on the trial of the habeas corpus that he could not be paroled by Superintendent Means.

"The statute reads as follows:

"'In all counties having over one hundred thousand people, whenever a judge sentences a person convicted of a felony to the industrial farm, or other similar institution, such sentence shall be for and during the minority of such person, unless sooner discharged by the board of commissioners of roads and revenues, with full power in the premises having charge of such industrial farm, or similar institution, to sooner parole or discharge such person, if in their judgment, he has sufficiently reformed to justify such discharge or parole, and such discharge or parole may be conditioned upon continued good behavior of such person during his minority, under such rules and regulations as such authorities may prescribe.'"

"The simple reading of this section answers the questions asked by you. When a minor under 18 is convicted of a misdemeanor he is sentenced to the reformatory, and that is the sentence and the extent of the sentence. Of course, he is sentenced under the terms of the foregoing statute. It is true, in one sense of the word, that he is sentenced for the remainder of his minority, and yet that is not true, because that is not the entire sentence, but the entire sentence is that he is sentenced during his minority unless sooner paroled or discharged. He can be discharged or paroled on good behavior, and it is often done in this county.

Boys Make Good Showing.

"I do not recall any case in which Professor Means has held a minor until his majority, except perhaps one who were weak-minded or laboring under other disabilities, where they themselves have desired to stay at the reformatory and their friends have also desired it.

"The average term of confinement at the reformatory has been about eighteen months, and I state with some satisfaction and pleasure that a great many of those who have been released after being confined in the reformatory for that length of time, and many of them for less than that length of time, have done well after being discharged and paroled, and some of them to my personal knowledge are conducting very profitable businesses of their own, and others are receiving salaries quite sufficient to support them. Very truly yours,

"J. T. PENDLETON,
"Judge Superior Court of Fulton County."

BANKER DICKERSON IN ATLANTA PEN TODAY

Asheville Financier Begins His Sentence for Offense Committed 17 Years Ago.

Asheville, N. C., May 14.—J. E. Dickerson, the banker who was yesterday ordered into the custody of the United States marshal to begin serving the two-year sentence pronounced on him for violation of the United States banking laws, left here tonight in the custody of Deputy United States Marshal L. A. Grant for Atlanta and will begin serving his sentence there tomorrow morning. A large number of friends were at the station to see the convicted banker start on his journey.

The offense for which Dickerson was convicted was committed seventeen years ago, but a final decision was only reached a short time ago.

Deputy United States Marshal Roland, who was given the instantor capias against Major W. E. Breese, president of the same bank and co-defendant with Dickerson, returned from Brevard today and stated that Major Breese is too ill to be moved. Breese is under the same sentence as Dickerson.

W. E. Breese, Jr., who has been at Washington trying to obtain executive clemency for his father, returned here today, but would say nothing regarding the success or failure of his mission.

STEEL TRUST REPORT SUBMITTED TO WILSON

Washington, May 14.—Part three of the report of the Bureau of Corporations on its extended investigation of the steel industry, dealing particularly with the cost of production, was submitted to the president today by acting Commissioner Francis Walker. A discussion of the vast difference between "book costs" and "net costs" featured the report, figures being given to demonstrate that iron and steel manufacturing companies usually include in their statements of costs of production large profits paid to subsidiary ore and transportation concerns.

For Bessemer steel rails, for instance, the report that the average book cost of the United States Steel corporation was $21.53, while the actual net cost, excluding intercompany profit on transportation and material, was only $16.87. Similar differences were shown in the manufacture of other steel products.

Parts one and two of the bureau's report were submitted during the Taft administration by former Commissioner Herbert Knox Smith.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAUSED BY THE FLY

St. Louis, May 14.—Warning against the fly as the most common cause of infantile paralysis was given by Dr. E. W. Saunders, of St. Louis, in an address before a medical association here today.

Dr. Saunders traced a connection between infantile paralysis and the raising of poultry and gave this as an explanation why the disease is more prevalent in country and suburban districts than in the crowded part of a city.

While experiments were not complete, he said, he was confident that final tests would demonstrate a connection between "limber-neck" in fowls and infantile paralysis.

His theory is that flies carry the germs of infantile paralysis from the carcasses of fowls and possibly from bodies of hogs and dogs to food.

Dr. Saunders condemned legal protection of the buzzard, which he said transmits infectious diseases of live stock.

M'NEIL FATALLY SHOT IN SCUFFLE WITH WIFE

He's Nephew of Judge Speer. Mrs. McNeil and Negro Chauffeur Arrested.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 14.—H. P. McNeil, a nephew of Judge Emory Speer, of Georgia, was shot and probably fatally wounded in a scuffle with his wife today at Pablo Beach. Mrs. McNeil and Plush Lee, the McNeils' chauffeur, both were placed under arrest pending an investigation by the county officials.

The McNeils left Jacksonville early this morning for Pablo Beach in their automobile. According to statements attributed to Mrs. McNeil and the chauffeur, the former was attacked by McNeil. After the woman was knocked down she grappled with McNeil, who, according to the statements, had drawn a revolver and was attempting to shoot her. In the scuffle which followed the pistol was discharged, the bullet entering McNeil's head just behind the ear. The wounded man was rushed to a hospital where physicians state that he cannot recover.

Mrs. McNeil is a sister of E. St. Elmore Acosta, Duval county representative in the state legislature. She was married twice. McNeil is quite wealthy and owns one of the largest saloons in this city, and is interested in various public corporations.

His brother is W. D. McNeil, a noted attorney at Macon, Ga., and his father is a prosperous business man in Waycross.

AT THE THEATERS

"Are You a Mason?"

(At the Atlanta.)

Atlanta theatergoers are showing an enthusiasm over the farce comedy "Are You a Mason?" which Miss Billy Long and associates are playing at the Atlanta this week. The fifth performance will be given tonight and the indications are the largest crowd of the week will be in attendance. The next matinee will be given Saturday afternoon. Next week the bill will be "The Deep Purple," which has never been seen in Atlanta despite the fact that it has been a tremendous hit wherever played. Seats are now on sale for the week beginning with the matinee Monday afternoon. This play is by Paul Armstrong and Wilson Mizner and deals with sensational crook work.

Keith Vaudeville.

At the Forsyth.

It's a wonderful thing to watch a satisfied audience in a playhouse There are thousands of people who go regularly to the Forsyth who are thoroughly accustomed to the experience. Take this week for instance, and study the people while Paul Dickey and his company are playing "The Come Back." It is half the treat. Some folk are settled back in their seats, just enjoying every line and situation; others are bending forward and taking in every blessed thing that is going on, and at the finish, when Dickey has gotten good and even with the college mates who tried to make his life miserable, there is a burst of applause.

DISHONEST WEIGHTS SCORED BY REDFIELD

Washington, May 14.—Dealers who defraud the public by dishonest weights and measures were condemned today by Secretary Redfield, of the department of commerce, in welcoming delegates to the eighth annual conference on weights and measures.

"Those people are particularly low," said the secretary, "because they usually cheat the people who least can afford to be cheated."

Mr. Redfield said the federal administration had adopted a broad policy toward the scientific bureaus of the government with the elimination of politics and the retention of the present heads where found fitted.

CRUISER "FELLOWSHIP" LAUNCHED BY BRYAN

Washington, May 14.—Symbolic of the hope for universal peace, Secretary Bryan today launched the cruiser "Fellowship" as a sister to the battleship "Friendship," when he launched yesterday at the breakfast to the Ghent peace delegates.

Mr. Bryan was an early caller at the white house. He told a group of newspaper men how the idea of the two "ships" came to his mind.

"It was Andrew Carnegie," he explained, "who suggested it to me by his speech in which he referred to the 'tiny dreadnaughts' of 160 tons each which had for a hundred years kept peace on the great lakes. Those two little 'gunboats' made me think of how happy it would be if through friendship and fellowship those relations were maintained."

GOVERNMENT TO PROBE WEST VIRGINIA STRIKE

Charged in Senate That Civil Rule Has Been Supplanted by Martial Law.

Washington, May 14.—Senator Kern's resolution for a federal investigation of conditions accompanying the strike of coal miners in West Virginia advanced through three hours of debate in the senate today to a point where its friends believe that tomorrow a vote upon it will be taken. Several senators expressed doubt as to the wisdom of ordering a senatorial inquiry before a senate committee had discussed the necessity for it. From the support it received upon the republican side in the day's developments, however, advocates of the resolution were confident it would be adopted.

Senator Kern led the supporting column in favor of the resolution in a long speech, while Senators Chilton and Goff, of West Virginia, expressed their disapproval. Senator Chilton argued against an investigation on the senate of acts done in a sovereign state. Senator Goff had not completed his address when the senate adjourned.

Senator Kern read statements from men who declared they had been refused admission to the postoffices in the strike region by employees of the mine operators. He said men had been tried there by drumhead court-martial and refused writs of habeas corpus and said acts such as these were responsible for the request of recall of judges and judicial decisions.

Senator Borah, author of the resolution of the same tenor last year, referred to decisions of the supreme court of the United States in similar cases and insisted that it had held that while a governor of a state might create a military zone such as existed in that state, might employ the militia to enforce order, men must be tried in the civil courts under the ordinary law and not by military courtmartial.

Senator Goff admitted many of the incidents related by Mr. Kern, but declared creation of military tribunals was justified under existing conditions. He told of orators who went into the strike country and made inflammatory speeches and of their suppression. He said he did not oppose free speech nor did he believe the senate responded to it, and added "it has never been held in any land that free speech means license."

Chicago, May 14.—Receivers for the Realty Realization company, a $3,000,000 corporation, engaged chiefly in colonization of Texas and Louisiana lands were appointed today after the filing in federal court of a petition alleging the insolvency of the corporation. Clinton S. Norfolk, who recently committed suicide, was president of the company. The creditors allege the liabilities to be in excess of $2,000,000 and the assets not more than $750,000.

It is alleged abnormally large salaries were paid and that the value assets in the books were inflated. A company official declared $2,000,000 was far too high an estimate of liabilities.

BLUE AND THE GRAY WILL GATHER TODAY

Many Prominent Veterans Are in Atlanta in Attendance on Three Assemblies.

By Dr. S. S. Gilson.

A meeting of the confederate and federal veterans of the civil war will be called in the three assemblies at the close of the afternoon session today to arrange for a campfire and reunion of "The Blue and the Gray."

It is estimated that there are over one hundred of these old soldiers in the several assemblies.

Among them are General Robert N. Adams, of Minnesota, who commanded a brigade and marched with Sherman to the sea, and was badly wounded in the fight at Jonesville; Adjutant General J. P. Laughlin, the only living man who received the surrender of Atlanta at the close of the war; Colonel J. E. McCord, who commanded a Texas confederate regiment; Major John A. Worden, of Philadelphia; Captain Duncan J. McMillan, of New York, secretary of the board of church directors, and who used to preach to the Mormons with his revolver lying on the pulpit beside the Bible, in the days where his life was threatened.

Every veteran has a thrilling story to tell, and most of them have not been in Atlanta since the war until now.

BELL HOUSE BOYS TO FURNISH ROOM FOR OLD LADIES HOME

The Home for Old Women is going to have one of the handsomest dining rooms to be seen anywhere, thanks to the initiative of Mrs. Emma Bell, who for many years has been the gracious presiding genius of the Bell house, whose well-stocked larder has been directly responsible for mroe contented bachelors than any one thing—(high cost of living and inate cussedness included).

Som edays ago Mrs. Bell suggested that it would be a gracious thing for the boys to make up a fund for the furnishing of the dining room for the old ladies who are inmates of the home. It met with instant and enthusiastic approval and the fund has already reached a goodly total. It is expected that former Bell house boys will be only too glad to contribute to the fund as soon as they learn of it. DIPLOMAS ARE GIVEN TO 64 YOUNG DOCTORS

Degrees Are Conferred Upon Senior Class of Atlanta Dental College by Judge Hammond.

At the twentieth annual commencement of the Atlanta Dental college, which was held last night at the Atlanta theater, sixty-four young men were graduated with the degree of doctor of dental surgery.

The graduating exercises were very impressive and were attended by an audience which filled the theater.

Dr. William Crenshaw, dean of the college, read his annual report, and presided over the graduation exercises. His report showed that the spring of 1913 saw the close of one of the most successful years in the history of the institution.

Judge Hammond Confers Degrees.

The degrees were conferred upon the senior class by Judge W. R. Hammond, who gave the young dentists much timely advice to steer them clear of the pitfalls of active life upon which they are about to enter.

The valedictory address was delivered by M. T. McMillan, who made the central theme of his address character, both of a man and his work, as an essential to success.

Following the exercises at the Atlanta theater the class and many of the alumni were guests of the school faculty at a banquet at Cafe Durand. The banquet was the festive scene of many merry songs and happy laughter, tinged only by the shadow of regret among the graduating dentists that many of the pleasant friendships they had formed at the dental college were nearing an end. F. O. Foster, of the S. S. White Dental Manufacturing company, presided.

Graduating Exercises.

A graduating recital of especial beauty in its classical numbers will be given at Miss Woodberry's school on Friday evening of this week, opening the commencement season of the school. The piano numbers will be given by Miss Mary McAden Myers and Miss Rita Lois Walton. Certificate graduates under Adolph Dahm Peterson, of the faculty, assisted by Miss Edith McCool, in voice, with violin obligato, played by Miss Hilliott Beattie Johnson, graduate in violin of Mrs. Theodora Morgan Stephens, of the faculty.

A cordial invitation to all friends of the young ladies and the school to attend. The program begins at 8 o'clock.

Miss Mary Myers will open with two Mendelssohn numbers and Scharwenka's Tarantelle, and Erotique by Gregg.

She will give for her second part of the program a Chopin nocturne, and a melody and bird song by Neupert. Miss Edith McCool, with violin obligato, by Miss Elliott Johnson, will sing "Bright Stars of Love," by Robandi, and "Rush-a-Bye, O Baby," by Pigott.

Miss Etta Walton's numbers will be the allegro movement of Mozart's sonata in D major and two numbers from Mendelssohn. Her second group of numbers will be two etudes of Heller and the Blumenstuck and Arabesque by Schumann.

The class day exercises at Miss Woodberry's school will be an interesting feature of the commencement on Friday, of this week, at noon, on the school grounds. On this occasion the college annual, "Leaves From Peachtree and Pine," will be presented by the annual board. It is a handsome volume in green limp leather, with many handsome engravings, and original stories and sketches. It is the initial volume, and great credit is due the board for its splendid work in the business management, the literary and art matter and its publication.

The ceremony, unusually impressive, was performed by Dr. Headden and Dr. S. C. Kennard, of Mount Sterling, Ky., brother of the groom. No cards were issued, but the First church was crowded with friends to witness the nuptial services, in which so many were thoroughly interested.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kennard left for a pleasant trip, after which they will make their home in Little Rock.

FOR THE METHODISTS

Splendid Meeting Place Provided in Carolina Mountains.

Waynesville, N. C., May 14.—Lake Junaluska is the name by which the Southern railway station, 3 miles east of Waynesville, formerly called Tuscola in this station for the Southern Assembly grounds, will hereafter be known and at this point a commodious passenger station is being erected by the Southern railway. It will be completed by June 1.

The Southern Assembly, a church-wide movement of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, and affiliated organizations, has purchased a tract of 1,200 acres and has constructed a lake which will have an area of 252 acres, an auditorium with a seating capacity of 4,000, a hotel with 125 rooms and 9 miles of graded driveways. It is expected that many private residences will also be built on the property. The purpose of the development is to provide a meeting place for Methodist conventions and kindred bodies and a large number of people will doubtless visit this point each season.

The new passenger station which the Southern railway is erecting will provide ample facilities and will have all modern conveniences, an arrangement having been made to secure water from the assembly's plant. A paved driveway, a track for storing equipment used in excursions and a small freight depot are also included in the improvement. Contract for the construction of the passenger station has been let to Melton Construction company, of Greensboro, N. C. The other work will be done by Southern railway forces.

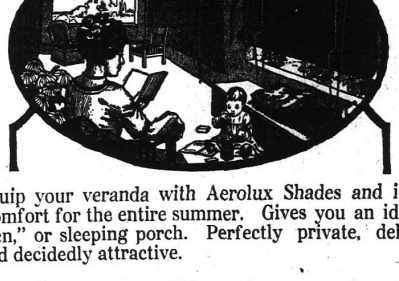
Aerolux Porch Shades Convert a Veranda Into a Delightful, Private Room

AEROLUX
NO-WHIP
PORCH SHADES



Equip your veranda with Aerolux Shades and it insures solid comfort for the entire summer. Gives you an ideal "outdoor-den," or sleeping porch. Perfectly private, delightfully cool and decidedly attractive.

Some Reasons Why Aerolux Shades Are Superior to Others

It is the only shade having an adjustable reinforcing attachment to prevent whipping in the wind. Each shade is equipped with guys which hold the shade taut when lowered.

Shades can be pushed up two to four feet and held without loosening the guys. Not necessary to roll up when leaving the porch, or at night. This attachment is not found on any other porch Shade.

Heavy moulding top and bottom in place of thin strip. Looks much better, at the same time are much stronger.

Compared to canvas curtains the Aerolux Shades keep out the sun effectively, a very essential feature in a Porch Shade. The Bamboo or German do not.

Aerolux Shades admit the air. Canvas curtains do not. Half the good of a porch shade is lost if the air is excluded. The colors, too, are a special attraction: Pretty, light brown, dark olive and Persian gray. The stains used in coloring these shades are made from a special formula and are the nearest weatherproof of any procurable.

May we suggest this comfort for you?

MARVIN HOLLY RELD ON A LUNACY CHARGE

Attorney Generals of Georgia and Alabama Interested in This Case.

Recorder Broyles will be placed in the unique position of settling a question which has been for the last week unsolved by the attorney generals of two states, when Marvin Holly, 23 years old, of 103 Powers street, is called before him.

Young Holly, who recently came to Atlanta from Birmingham, about five months ago, after having been dismissed from the charge of the Alabama insane asylum, as believed to have lost his sanity again, but, strange to say, there is no public institution to take care of him.

He has not lived in Georgia long enough to be eligible to the state's insane asylum at Milledgeville. He is, however, eligible to admittance to the Alabama Insane asylum, and that institution has notified the Associated Charities that they will receive him, but neither this state nor Alabama has provisions to bear the expenses of transportation in such cases.

When young Holly left the Alabama institution he had apparently regained his faculties, and he came to Atlanta, where he went to work for the Woodward-Eubanks Mantel company, on Marietta street. Some weeks ago his conversation showed indications of a return of his former malady, and he soon became violent and fired shots in the vicinity of his home. By reason of his affliction, however, he cannot be convicted of a misdemeanor.

The Associated Charities, after considerable correspondence with the state authorities of Alabama and consultations with Attorney General Felder, of Georgia, have failed to reach any solution to the problem.

The fact that the youth is without funds to pay for his own transportation and the transportation of a guard to Birmingham, Ala., where the state asylum is waiting to take care of him, has left the Associated Charities with hands tied.

Young Holly was arrested on a charge of lunacy last night, and the Associated Charities hope to find a solution to their problem when the youth appears before the recorder this afternoon.

PROTESTANT SECTS ARE URGED TO UNITE

Atchison, Kans., May 14.—An "universal Christian church," in which all protestant sects shall be united, is the church of the future, and rapid strides toward the accomplishment of such an ideal are being made, according to statements made by the Rev. Jenus B. Rennsnyder, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, New York city, who preached the synodical sermon at the opening here today of the forty-fifth biennial convention synod of the Lutheran church. The Lutheran church, he said, with its 2,000,000 members throughout the world and its broad standards, seemed best fitted to lead the protestant churches to unity.

Among other statements in the synodical sermon were:

"Revivalism has failed as a means of conversion."

"The Lutheran is no puritanic church. Temperance, not abstinence, as to the good things and the innocent pleasures of life, is its rule. This accords with the modern larger view of the religious life."

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY TO OPEN IN WASHINGTON

Washington, May 14.—The American university, planned years ago by Methodist Episcopal educators, and provided with beautiful buildings and grounds in the outskirts of this city, will be opened formally with a college for graduate study June 4 next. This was decided upon at a meeting of the trustees here today. Forty members of the board, representing nearly every section of the country, were present.

Large sums of money were spent in constructing the university buildings and equipping them, but the opening has been delayed from time to time because until recently the trustees were without a sufficient income to warrant them in undertaking to operate the institution. A considerable bequest by the late president of the board, Dr. David H. Carroll, of Baltimore, Md., made the college for graduate study possible.

The college for the present, the trustees announced, will maintain an institution for research, to be operated in connection with the various federal departments and institutions here; will carry on a series of lectures and will support a comprehensive system of fellowships in connection with leading educational institutions of this country and Europe. Several fellowships for foreign study and travel already have been arranged for.

Reports to the trustees showed that the financial resources of the university have been steadily advancing.

Instant Postum

This pure food-drink, made from choice, whole wheat and the juice of Southern sugar-cane, contains no drug whatever, but is genuine nourishment.

A level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled.)

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water.

KEELY'S KEELY'S

Walter Johnson smashed the world's record for consecutive shutout ball, when he hurled three and one-third innings in the game Wednesday against St. Louis and incidentally scored his ninth straight victory.

"BIG SWEDE" SMASHES THE RECORD

EDITED BY Dick Jemison

WHIFFS

Silence Only.

UNCLE SAM would fine The Constitution for sending such matter through the mails if Whiffs was to express its feeling fitfully after Wednesday's game. Besides, the writer of Whiffs does not use that kind of language. Wednesday's frolic capped the climax. Can you imagine giving a pitcher seven runs' lead in seven innings and then have him blow up in the last two? (—??!xxx, etc.)

Look at This.

THE BATTERS have done more than their share on the present road trip. In the fifteen games that have been played, 128 hits have been registered off the opposing twirlers and 72 runs have been driven across the plate, an average of practically 5 runs to the game and an average of 8 1-2 hits to the game, enough to win every game on the trip, yet only five have been captured. Oh, for some pitchers.

Walloping Wally.

WALLY SMITH, the Crackers big third-sacker, is certainly clouting teh old globule on the nose. In the last ten times to the plate he has made eight hits and walked twice, giving him eight straight hits, which, as far as we can remember, is the league record for consecutive hits.

Congratulations.

THE BIG SWEDE did it. We knew he would. But to have the St. Louis Brown score the tally that broke the string. That's the perversity of fate sometimes. Walter is likely to start over again and break his own record.

The Bad Breaks.

THE CRACKERS are getting all the bad breaks on the present road trip, according to some of the Atlanta traveling men who have seen them play on the road. "It looks like every trick play that the Crackers try goes just the opposite way," said one. "If could recite incident after incident, and in some cases I have seen them make a play two opposite ways only to have it fail in each instance; when had they reversed the order every thing would have been pulled off, but at the same time it looked like the way they made the play it would be successful."

A Slim Chance.

"MAYER looked very good" was a headline in one of the Philadelphia papers recently. All of which leads us to remark that what chances the Crackers had in landing him to strengthen their wabbling hurling staff has gone glimmering.

A True Sport.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON is one of our truest sports. When the New York Yacht club asked for information on the conditions under which the yacht races were to be run Lipton replied, "Any rules suit, so long as there is a race." Guess that ought to fix the race beyond any doubt.

The Two Factors.

THE DODGERS are making such a strong race in the National league this season for two reasons. First is the brilliant field and second is their darling base running. These two factors have been the most important, although a better brand of pitching than a Brooklyn team has had in years and some timely hitting has helped, but it is the first two attributes that have figured the most.

A Grand Boost.

THE NEWS-SCIMITAR in the afternoon paper of Memphis, is out with the following about Wallop Smith, and the compliment was printed before he made five hits in five trips to the plate, in a special story in the headline reads: "They call Smith Wallop, and he lives up to his name." In part, the story reads: "In referring to Smith's ability it is doing him an injustice to state that he is a good hitter or a good fielder, the correct dope on this big boy being contained in just two words—ball player."

Change Pitchers.

CHANCE, Evers and Tinker, the graduates of the Cub manageral school for ball players, have changed more pitchers in the games they have played in the regular season to date than all the other managers combined. Tinker and Chance are changing theirs trying to get their clubs out of the cellar. Evers to keep the Cubs up in the fight. Three systems do not appear to be very successful as yet.

Boys' High was the winner over Tech High yesterday afternoon at Ponce de Leon, by the score of 4 to 0.

The game was a pitcher's battle throughout, with Fox having a little better of the argument, and also receiving better support than did Weston.

Fox made nine of his opponents fan the air; did not walk a man, and gave up only three hits, two of which were secured by Thomas. Second base was as far as any Tech High man could get during the game.

Spurlock also starred, both at the bat and in the field. He hit to the score board for a homer the first time up, and annexed a single in the sixth.

Weston pitched a swell game for Tech High, striking out ten men and being touched up for only six hits. He secured the other hit made from Fox's delivery.

Foxes 5, Scouts 3.

Jacksonville, Ia., May 14.—Columbus won a pretty thirteen-inning game this afternoon, the score at the finish being 5 to 3. A single, followed by a sacrifice, an error at short, a sacrifice fly and a three-base hit to left by Folmar, turned the trick for the Foxes in the thirteenth. Warwick had two bad innings, the first and thirteenth, but during the remaining innings he pitched a masterful game. McCormick was steady at all times.

CAP'N JOHN HAS NEVER SEEN BASEBALL GAME

Thomasville, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—The man who never goes to a game of baseball is a rara avis in this day and generation, but Captain John Tripplett, Thomasville's veteran ex-editor, holds the record of never having seen a game played. It is not that Captain Tripplett feels no interest in the game, as he is always anxious to hear the score and know that the home boys have come out ahead, but he has just never acquired the habit of going and thinks it rather late now to take it up. As far as known, he is the only man in Thomasville who hasn't at some game out at least once to watch the great national game.

MANY CHANGES MADE IN AMERICUS TEAM

Americus, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—The material strengthening today of the Americus team, of the Empire league, restores interest and confidence here to a considerable extent, despite the loss of another game this afternoon.

Jesse Wolfe has been secured from Albany by purchase, and will lead off in the box at Thomasville tomorrow.

The Americus management has likewise secured an excellent second baseman in Paigne. Hamlin comes here from the Cotton States league as shortstop.

The release of Pitchers Smith and Pruitt is announced this afternoon. Hal Griffin, recently appointed temporary manager to succeed Manager Harris Weber, will probably be retained permanently in that capacity.

English Poloists Here.

New York, May 14.—The English polo team that is to meet the American players for the international trophy at Meadow Brook, Long Island, in June, arrived this evening on the steamer Oceanic. Its members are Captain R. C. Ritson, Leslie St. George Cheape, A. Noel Edwards and Vivian Lockett. They were met at quarantine by friends.

GRANT FIELD WILL BE A RIOT OF COLORS WHEN GEORGIA AND TECH MEET FRIDAY

Grant field at Tech will be a riot of colors on Friday and Saturday. The Old Gold and White of Tech and the Red and Black of Georgia will mingle in the great audience that will attend both games.

The big surprise sprung by the Tech Yellow Jackets in winning both games in Athens is still the talk of the college baseball world of the south.

Atlanta and Georgia fans who were not fortunate enough to witness the games in Athens last week will attend the games here to see for themselves just how the Jackets, considered rank outsiders before the contests, could so reverse all the dope on the contests.

Record Crowd Certain.

That the capacity of the new athletic field at Tech will be thoroughly tested by these two games is evident. Interest in the contests are at fever heat. The approaching games are the one subject in the minds of the baseball fans of the city and surrounding towns.

Painstaking has been the work of the two coaches in preparing their men for these two games. Careful has been the preparation and the final touches will be put on the athletes this afternoon on their respective campuses.

Coach Cunningham, of Georgia, has the all important task. It is up to him to see if he can drive the team back to its great stride that marked its showing in the earlier games of the season.

FIRST SACKER WHOSE WORK WAS FEATURE IN ATHENS GAMES

Reports from Athens are to the effect that he has revolutionized the tactics of the Red and Black baseball. Instead of trying to kill every ball pitched to them, he has taught them an easy "just meeting the ball" wallop that is intended to work havoc with the Tech fielders by producing short singles just over the infield and too close in for the outfield to reach.

Infield Worked.

But the fielding has been receiving the greatest attention. The infield has been put through its paces every afternoon since the Saturday game in Athens. Double duty has been put on them each afternoon in an effort to erase the butter-fingered tactics that marred their work in the Athens battles.

Corley and Morris have been working carefully, trying to regain their lost cunning. Hutchens, the great receiver of the Red and Black, has nursed them along each afternoon in slow, careful study of their assortment of benders, making control the one essential in all their work, holding his big mit as a target for them to shoot at time after time.

In the last ditch, with their backs to the ball, fighting the fight of the men of Troy, the work of the Georgians in their practices are said to have shown a hundred per cent improvement and they are coming to Atlanta with blood in their eyes.

Whether the entire student body at Athens will come for both games or not has not been definitely decided. They will be on hand sure on Saturday and with half of the city of Athens accompanying them. It may be decided at the last moment to let the student body accompany the team here Thursday night for the game Friday.

Tech Is Confident.

At Tech everything is running smoothly. A realization that they have at the present writing, a slight edge on their most ancient rivals, is a spur to the Jackets to do their best in the games to come.

The Jackets are confident, but not over-confident, of their ability to on the fine edge that they reach for the first games, but he seems, by careful handling, to have put them to even a finer point, ready for any emergency that may happen.

Eubanks and Pitts, the two twirlers who stopped the hard hitting Red and Black aggregation, have had an easy week, working only enough to keep their arms limbered up.

When the two teams trot on the field tomorrow the comparison physically will strike one as ludicrous in view of the outcome of the first two battles.

Jacket supporters have dubbed their team "Tech, the Giant Killers." The cognomen is appropriate when the size of the two line-ups is noted.

The battle will probably start at 3:30 o'clock.

Seven Runs Lead Is Not Enough for Poor Pitchers On Billy Smith's Crackers

By Herbert Caldwell.

Memphis, Tenn., May 14.—(Special.)—Continuing the pace that thrills, the Memphis Turtles, aided and abetted by some horrible pitching, overcame a seven-run lead in the ninth inning of the Atlanta series, defeating the Smithites by an 8-7 conclusion.

It was one of the most exciting and thrill bespattered games of the season. Atlanta used three pitchers, Smith changing twice in the eighth inning. Price started and after a faltering session settled down and went well for seven innings. Then the Turtle wrecking crew got busy.

A blast down the third base line, which caught Smith thinking of the old folks at home, started it all.

Following the burst came four consecutive hits, including a triple by Baerwald. These hits, together with an infield out, netted five runs.

Smith allowed Price to go back in the eighth. He passed the first man up, and Merritt, who had been hitting like a fiend, laid the next ball up on the hill for two bases, scoring Abstein.

Here Musser replaced Price, but was wild, and passed Butler, after having him two and nothing. Chappelle went out to warm up. Musser continued pitching, however, and retired Seabough on a fly to center, after which he gave way to Chappelle, who was believed to have better control.

It was a poor belief, though, for Bill passed the next two batters, forcing Merritt with the tying run. On Baerwald's hit fly, Butler scored the winning run.

Atlanta hit Kissinger hard and profited by Turtle errors. A walk, a triple by Long and a double by Bailey netted two in the third. Two infield miscues sandwiched in between hits by Bailey, Welchonce and Smith, increased the count to five in the fifth.

In the seventh two more counters were added on sharp singles by Long, Alperman and Bland.

In the eighth the visitors were retired in succession, while Harrell, who replaced Kissinger in the ninth, retired the side without a hit, besides causing two to fan the breeze.

Umpire Fifield was roundly panned by Dunn and Brady during the last two innings, and the arbitrator threatened to banish both of them.

Montgomery, Ala., May 14.—Montgomery turned the tables on Birmingham today and won from them. The score was 3 to 1. Both Manning and Thompson pitched mid-season ball, but the tide of the game turned to Montgomery when Wares stole home in the eighth inning. The base running of Wares was the feature of the game outside of the work of both pitchers.

Mobile, Ala., May 14.—After Nashville had taken a three-run lead in the first on two errors and two hits, Mobile drove McManus from the mound in the third and won out, 9 to 3. Jacobson's triple, with the bases full, followed by Clarke's sacrifice fly and Robertson's home run, scored five runs in the third. Paige succeeded McManus, and was hit hard, while the fielding behind was slow and ragged. Hogg, though hit in spots, pitched shut-out ball after the first.

Lookouts Win Two.

New Orleans, La., May 14.—Outplaying and out-batting the locals today, Chattanooga won two games from New Orleans, 2 to 0 and 4 to 1. Coveleskie outpitched Evans easily in the first game. The batting of Street and the fielding of the Chattanooga team featured. A triple play was made in the ninth inning. Two New Orleans men were on base and Snedecor drove a line hit back of second, Flick making a wonderful catch. Flick tossed to Elberfeld, who covered second and the latter threw to Coyle. Summers was given errorless support in the second game. Elston's home run in the fifth inning, with one on base, was good to defeat Taylor. Williams, former Buffalo outfielder, joined the Chattanooga team and played well. Troy was released to Adrian and Golden returned to the St. Louis Nationals.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Under this head the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor The Constitution: A bets B that Georgia and Tech split even in their next meeting in Atlanta. Suppose they play only one game, who wins. T. F.

The bet would be off. You must have a chance to win to have a chance to lose, and if only one game is played the fellow on the losing end would have no chance to win on the second game if it was not played.

VAN TASSELL NAMED COACH AT GORDON

Barnesville, Ga., May 14.—Irvin Van Tassell, of Michigan university, has been selected as coach at Gordon for the coming year. Mr. Van Tassell received his preparatory training at Peddie institute and Blair academy. At these schools he was a member of the football, basket-ball and baseball teams.

After leaving prep school he entered Ohio Wesleyan university, where for three years he played on the football and baseball teams. For one season he was with the York club in the Tri-State league. This professional connection made him ineligible for athletics at the University of Michigan, where he was graduated in 1910.

The athletic authorities at Gordon feel that they have secured a good man to coach the teams, and are confident that a high standard will be maintained.

JOHNSON BREAKS COOMBS' RECORD

Twirled 56 Consecutive Innings Without Being Scored On—St. Louis Scored in Fourth Wednesday.

Walter Johnson established a world's record for pitching consecutively scoreless innings, when he twirled three and a third innings against the St. Louis Browns Wednesday.

The Browns scored on him after one man was out in the fourth inning of Wednesday's game. Johnson had pitched fifty-two and two-thirds innings without being scored on previous to Wednesday's game.

The former record was held by Jack Coombs of the Philadelphia Athletics, who pitched fifty-three and one-third innings consecutively in the season of 1910 without being scored on.

The reported record of fifty-six innings of Doc White, of the Chicago White Sox, was found incorrect by The Constitution's sporting editor, the story being carried exclusively in Wednesday morning's paper.

Kite sent in Cates again, and he was drubbed by Thomasville with six runs and a total of nine safeties, several of the scratch order. Elliott, for Thomasville, gave up four hits and pitched a corking contest throughout. The fielding of both teams was sharp, especially during the latter part of the contest, when it was three up and three down on both sides. The bobbies, of the locals, came in fortunate times except in the second, when Brunswick scored her lone tally on two muffs of line driver to centerfield.

SAVAGE-FLYNN BOUT IS ON DEFINITELY

Local Promoters and Heavyweights Finally Agree on Terms—April 9.

All the hitches in the proposed Jim Savage-Jim Flynn bout for the Auditorium-Armory June 9 were removed Wednesday afternoon and the bout is now definitely on.

It was feared at one time that the bout would fall through after the first announcement, but Jack Curley, manager of Jim Flynn, and Danny Morgan, manager of Jim Savage, agreed on the way the purse should be split and wired acceptance of the local club's offer.

In addition to this bout the promoters are going to try to arrange for two other ten-round goes with Kid Young in one of them.

Savage and Flynn will arrive here the last of this month to complete their training for the bout.

SALARY REDUCTIONS HIT BY DAVE FULTZ

New York, May 14.—David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' fraternity, addressed a letter today to the National Commission requesting it to abolish the practice of transferring players from one club to another at reductions in salary. Many such transfers, Mr. Fults states, are made notwithstanding contracts calling for a larger salary than the player receives upon being transferred to the second club.

"The Baseball Players' fraternity requests that the National Commission take such action as shall be necessary to assure to the player his salary set forth in the original contract or his unconditional release," says the letter.

"You will appreciate the fact that if a contract is to have any force, it must be binding on both parties and also that the present form of contract prescribed by you calls for a stated salary or the player's unconditional release. It is, therefore, difficult to see why the player is compelled to go to a team which arbitrarily cuts his salary in absolute disregard of the contract signed by him.

"It is needless to call to your attention the fact that this practice has caused much dissatisfaction among the players, and that many of them have quit the game on its account.

Goodrich Tires

All Styles— Only One Kind

Different cars, different wheels and different purposes require different styles of tires. You have always been able to secure whatever style of tire you need in the Goodrich line. But no matter what the difference in size or style, they are all the same kind of tire.

Experience does away with experiment.

Each Goodrich Tire, because of forty-three years of experience, is made from the beginning as a unit.

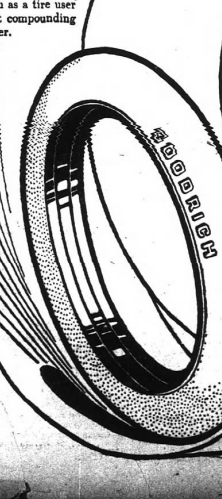
The layers of rubber-impregnated fabric, strips of pure rubber, and thick, tough rubber tread, are so placed and arranged as to meet and resist road wear, strains, shocks, and jars.

The single curing, or vulcanization, converts the whole tire into one integral structure—a unit.

By looking at a cross section of any Goodrich Tire at your dealer's you will see exactly what this means. You simply cannot detect any layers in the tire.

All this is very important, but there is even greater value to you as a tire user in the right compounding of the rubber.

There is nothing in Goodrich Advertising that isn't in Goodrich Goods



Only the most capable rubber experts in the country can properly compound rubber so that it will possess durability and life. The thick, tough tread of a Goodrich Tire has all this wear put into it in the compounding, and then because of Unit Molding, it becomes actually a part of the tire and does not peel or strip.

We made the best American clincher and still make it. In our line you also find the Goodrich Quick Detachable, Goodrich Straight Bead, Goodrich Safety Tread, Goodrich Bailey Tread, Goodrich Metal Stud, Goodrich Cord Tire for electrics, and so forth.

CATCHER DEVOGHT TO JOIN LOCALS

Young Catcher of Boston Nationals Purchased—Not Known Whose Place He Will Take.

Boston, May 14.—(Special.)—Catcher Rex DeVoght, the young receiver of the Boston Braves, who was secured last fall from the Spokane, Northwestern league team, left tonight to join the Atlanta team of the Southern league, to whom he was sold today. He is sent to the south under optional agreement.

DeVoght played with the Braves during their practice season games in Atlanta, and impressed local fans with his clean cut work, especially his throwing to the bases.

With Spokane last season, he played in 129 games, getting 101 hits in 398 times at bat, for an average of .254, and fielding .970, having 3 errors, only handling 609 put outs and making 185 assists. He stole 17 bases.

With Raiden catching such fine ball, and Whaling, who also played in the Northwestern league last season, going good, too, Stallings decided to farm the youngster for another season and gave the Crackers a chance at him. DeVoght stood second to Whaling in the Northwestern league catchers last season.

Manager Smith was wired last night for a confirmation of this report, but at midnight no reply had been received, so it is not known just whose place DeVoght will take on the local club.

Advertising Drives the Wheels of Trade

"That which I feared and fostered in thought has come upon me."

It is recorded of a member of the animal kingdom that with the advent of cold weather he crawls into a hole and goes to sleep. There he stays until warm weather arrives when he awakens and comes forth.

This is suggestive of the general attitude of advertisers who, with the approach of warm weather, pull down their signs of publicity and to a certain degree go out of business until fall.

The anticipation of poor business and the withdrawal of means of communication with the buying public really cause poor business.

The experience of certain wise ones proves that by advertising through the warm months they can keep business up to normal and often up to the volume of the winter season.

Most persons are on the job during the warm months with the exception of several weeks. Set your advertising clutch for higher speed. Spend more time in developing and holding business instead of twiddling thumbs and cussin' the humidity.

Phone Main 5000 and a representative of The Constitution will call, and, with your knowledge of your business and his knowledge of advertising, the two of you can prepare a "ginger-up" campaign that will keep you busy selling goods.

DISCRIMINATION LAW TO SOUTHERN RAILWAY

Washington, May 14.—A petition was filed late today with the interstate commerce commission by the O'De Hardware company, of Greensboro, N. C., and other North Carolina shippers against the Southern railway and other lines operating in the southeastern territory, which is the culmination of a protracted contest over rates to and from North Carolina points. The complaint alleges that the railroads discriminate against North Carolina cities in favor of what technically is known as the "Virginia cities" territory and that, by this discrimination, the manufacturing centers of North Carolina are deprived of the advantages of location and natural resources. The commission is requested to readjust the North Carolina freight rate structure on a basis of equity and non-discrimination.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL OF THE MARKETS

SHOWERS IN ALABAMA MADE COTTON EASIER

Market Closed Steady at Net Decline of Two to Five Points.

New York, May 14.—After a quiet but comparatively steady morning the cotton market turned easier on private reports of showers in Alabama and closed steady at a net decline of 3@5 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of 1 to 3 points. Cables fully met yesterday's local declines and private advices reported renewed uneasiness due to European political conditions, but the weather map failed to show as much rain as expected in the eastern belt and rather a bullish construction was placed upon the supply and distribution figures of the census bureau. At any rate, there seemed to be considerable scattered covering, partly attributed to sellers on the break of yesterday afternoon, and the market worked about 3 to 4 points net higher during the early trading.

There was no aggressive support in evidence, however, and private predictions for rain east of the river within the next day or two encouraged a renewal of local and southern selling which soon checked the advance. Offerings were very well absorbed around 11 cents for new crop months, but the pressure became somewhat more aggressive upon receipt of private advices indicating showers in Alabama and rumors that part of the cotton taken up on the first May notices would be retendered.

Covering by early sellers steadied the market in the late trading, but closing prices were within a point or two of the lowest.

Private crop advices received during the day were more or less conflicting. Domestic mill consumption for the month of April, according to the census bureau, was 503,667 bales, making a total of 3,515,015 so far this season, which local statisticians say is at the rate of about 5,785,000 bales per year. Domestic mill stocks of raw cotton showed a decrease of about 185,000 bales during April.

Cotton spot closed quiet; middling uplands 12.00; do. gulf 12.25; no sales.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 14.—At the carpet auction today prices were as good as those of the previous sale two weeks ago. Buyers are taking goods readily. An advance in carpet prices announced to become effective in large agencies tomorrow. Cotton goods rule steady with a tendency to greater firmness. Yarns are easy. Buying history of staple grades will be higher for the spring season.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 14.—Cotton had a steady tone throughout the session today, but prices closed at a net decline of 6 to 7 points, on reports of somewhat better conditions in the cotton region, as the result of a moderate rise in temperatures. Bears were not aggressive, but the inquiry was small in teh afternoon and light offerings caused a downward tendency.

On the opening, the close yesterday and prices were one point up to two points down, compared with the final prices of yesterday. Cables were about as expected, but they had no effect because of the weather map, which was again dry. The eastern half of the belt continued to complain of lack of moisture. The census bureau report showing consumption for April of 503,67 bales of cotton was rather bullish, but it did not cause any buying of consequence. In the early trading, prices went 3 to 5 points above yesterday's close. Toward noon, the market fell off slightly on the higher temperatures shown in the detailed weather reports and in the afternoon the decline was widened to 7 to 8 points.

Cotton futures closed steady at a net decline of 6 to 7 points.

STOCKS LOST THE GAIN OF THE PREVIOUS DAY

Demand Was Small and Offerings Depressed the List. Bonds Easy.

New York, May 14.—The ground gained by yesterdays advance in stocks was lost today. There was no severe pressure on the market and trading was dull throughout the session, but the demand was so small that even the offerings made were sufficient to depress the list materially. The Harriman shares, Reading, St. Paul, Pennsylvania, Lehigh, Smelting, Amalgamated and other leading stocks sold off a point or more. Canadian Pacific and the Wabash stocks and bonds were especially weak.

Speculative conditions were little changed and there seemed to be no more reason for the decline of today than for the advance of yesterday. The only inference which could be drawn safely was that dealings recently have been largely superficial, representing the day-to-day maneuvers of the trading element rather than the play of forces which affect the market fundamentally.

Weakness of the Wabash securities was attributed to unloading by holders who did not wish to meet the heavy assessments which it is proposed to levy under the reorganization plan. Pressure on Canadian Pacific was believed to have come from Montreal, with some offerings from London and Berlin. Another group of new low records for the year was made, including Pennsylvania and St. Paul preferred.

Announcement overnight of New York Central's financial plan did not disturb the stock. The fact that the road's bankers decided that present conditions warranted announcement of the plan and the taking of steps necessary to make it effective, was regarded as indicative of a hopeful view on the part of those responsible for this huge project.

In addition to the $8,000,000 gold taken for Paris on the last moment, it was expected that the engagement of $2,000,000 more would be announced soon. That French banking interests are paying much mor ethan the usual rate for the gold now being shipped from this country was intimated in high official circles. Ordinarily the only extra inducement is "interest in transit, but it is believed that in this instance the Paris borrowers are paying as much as half of one per cent on the actual value of the gold.

The bond market was easy. Total sales, par value, $2,241,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

London Stock Market.

London, May 14.—On the stock exchange saw business was good with the tone firm, especially investment stocks. Speculative issues sagged later and closed weak. American securities opened steady with prices from ¼ to ⅝ above parity. Later Berlin sold Canadian Pacific and the list eased off in sympathy. Chesapeake and Ohio advanced. Closed easy.

PLENTY OF MOISTURE MADE WHEAT DECLINE

Net Loss of Three-Eighths to Seven-Eights Cent Shown Today.

Chicago, May 14.—Beneficial rains in both the spring and winter belts knocked the props from under wheat today. Texas requests for bids on new shipments in July, accelerated the smash, and the market closed heavy at a net loss of 3-8 to 3-4 @7-8 cents. Corn was off 1-8@1-4 cents to 3-8 cent, and oats down 1-8 to 1-4@3-8 cents. In provisions, the outcome was 2 1-2 to 12 1-2 cents gain.

Rears in wheat made much of the fact that each day the country was getting nearer the period of early cutting, and that the chances of accident to the crop were reduced. In addition, cables were lower and Liverpool sent word of increased Canadian offerings at cut prices. Temporary uneasiness was brought about by lightness of receipts at leading terminals, and talk that moisture in the southwest was excessive. There were also assertions of export sales at Baltimore. Advices from western Ohio, too, told of fields there being thinner than expected. Shorts covered freely, but the market found itself without any prop, and general liquidation was in progress in the final hour. Speculators, who were loaded with old wheat and yet had been attempting to buy the 1913 harvest, sold with especial freedom. Primary receipts of wheat were 397,000 bushels, against 424,000 a year ago; Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 726,000 bushels.

Included incoming up of offerings by country owners weakened corn. Rains were said to have given the crop a good start.

The weather map proved too much also for the bulls in oats.

Provisions worked higher, influenced by an advance at the yards. Packers competed actively for control of the cash lard trade.

Seward, Neb., May 14.—A tornado which took a toll of ten lives, injured thirty odd persons and destroyed more than a third of this town occurred shortly before 6 o'clock this evening. Twenty-two residences were destroyed, and many more were partly wrecked, but the business portion of the place did not greatly suffer.

The tornado struck the residence portion of Seward and swept everything in its path. Most of those killed were caught in the wreckage of their homes.

Other Towns Wiped Out.

The tornado, after passing through Seward, continued to the northeast. Reports tonight say that the towns of Tomaro, Lushton, Grafton and McCool Junction were wiped out. Four persons are reported killed at Tomaro and several at McCool Junction. Utica was in the path of the twister.

Before the last telephone wire went down an appeal was sent to Lincoln to send physicians and undertakers.

Reports from surrounding sections indicate that the effects of the tornado were felt over a wide range of territory.

The tornado was followed in Seward by a hail and rain storm. Tonight the town was without lights.

12 Persons Dead and 50 Injured.

Omaha, Neb., May 14.—Officials of the Nebraska Telephone company in this city were notified early this evening that a tornado at Seward had resulted in twelve deaths and fifty persons being injured, several of them fatally. The town is said to have been almost destroyed.

A series of tornadoes which had their climax at Seward struck the towns of McCool, Lushton and Grafton, east of here, just before 6 o'clock tonight. Numerous buildings were demolished, but the total number of casualties is not known.

A storm of great fury struck the southern part of Omaha at 7 o'clock this evening, uncoofing many houses in the vicinity of Thirteenth and Gold streets and doing other damage. No person is reported injured.

Coming so quickly after the eastern tornado, in which more than 100 lives were lost, many hundreds of south end inhabitants rushed to cellars and other places of refuge.

Three inches of rain fell in the downtown district.

Oklahoma Town Swept.

Chattanooga, Okla., May 14.—Several buildings, including a bank, church and school house here, were wrecked during a wind storm late today.

The property damage is estimated at $25,000. No one was hurt.

Reports from the surrounding country tell of serious damage to crops.

AFFIDAVIT OF WOMAN AGAINST VICE PROBER

Maud Robinson Swore She and Lieut. Gov. O'Hara Registered as Man and Wife.

Springfield, Ill., May 14.—After a brief session of the senate committee investigating tonight charges of alleged immorality upon the part of Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, two principal witnesses brought forward to sustain the charges failed to do so, and the much discussed affidavit of Maud Robinson was made public. It was this affidavit, brought out after the lieutenant governor had been active in his vice investigation, that led to charges against the official. It follows:

"Maud Robinson, being duly sworn in due form of law, says that on or about the seventeenth day of January, 1913, she met Barratt O'Hara, lieutenant governor of Illinois, on a Chicago and Alton train on the way to Chicago, and that the said Barratt O'Hara and this affiant had a drawing room on said train going to Chicago, and that on their arrival in said city they were registered as man and wife at the Hotel Sherman, in said city of Chicago, under the name of T. D. Duncan and wife, and occupied with one J. F. Miller, rooms 512, 513 and 515 in said hotel on the 17th day of January last, and occupied said rooms until the 20th day of January last and on that day registered out.

"MAUD ROBINSON.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 29th day of April, 1913.

"WM. L. ENSEL,
"Notary Public."

Thomas Vredenburgh, whom it was charged, was with O'Hara and Maud Robinson on the days in question, denied he knew of improper actions of O'Hara. It also was established that Samuel Davis, who was instrumental in having the Robinson affidavit made, did so to have a "come back" in case he was called before the vice commission because of alleged business connections with disorderly houses.

ACQUITTED OF HOMICIDE

Jury Frees B. H. Hyde, Who Killed Dunn.

Dalton, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—B. H. Hyde, tried for a homicide which ocurred in May, 1911, was acquitted in the Murray supreme court today. A man named Dunn and a friend, John Issenhower, went to Hyde's home late at night while intoxicated and called for whisky. Being refused, they abused Hyde. When Dunn started to enter the home, Hyde shot and killed him almost instantly.

Tom Whitson will be put on trial tomorrow for killing Will Smith last December. Smith was employed at Whitson's saw mill as night watchman. They fell out about the discharge of Smith. Smith drew his gun on Whitson and the latter was too quick for Smith and shot him, which resulted in the death of Smith the next day.

Bluejackets Killed.

Helgoland, Germany, May 14.—Four German bluejackets were killed and three others seriously injured today by the explosion of a high pressure cylinder on torpedo boat S-148 while the vessel was participating in maneuvers near here.

SCUTARI IS YIELDED TO THE GREAT POWERS

Montenegro Turns Hard Won Fortress Over to International Force.

Cettinje, Montenegro, May 14.—An international naval force, commanded by Vice Admiral Cecil Burney, of the British navy, took possession today of the fortress of Scutari. The international force was escorted into the city by a Montenegrin guard of honor.

Lord Worley on Balkan Mission.

London, May 14.—Although it is officially asserted that the proposed visit of Viscount Morley, of Blackburn, to Berlin is purely of a private nature, there is a strong belief that it may involve political possibilities as did Lord Haldane's last visit, which was similarly described as private.

Lord Morley presided at the ambassadorial conferences in London recently in Sir Edward Grey's absence, and it is suggested that he may be entrusted with some mission in connection with the Balkan settlements or with the task of arranging, if possible, an Anglo-German understanding.

The king and queen are going to Berlin for the wedding of Princess Victoria Luise and Prince Ernst August of Cumberland, which will take place May 24, and it is said they will, at the emperor's request, remain in Germany until June 1.

Austria to Demobilize.

Vienna, May 14.—The Austrian and Hungarian ministers at a joint meeting today decided to dismiss the reservists only very gradually. About one-third will be dismissed, chiefly from the northern frontiers, very few from Galicia and the southern frontiers until peace actually is concluded.

SCENERY TO ARRIVE FOR PLAYERS' CLUB FRIDAY FROM N. Y.

Scenery for the production by the Atlanta Players' club of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," is expected to arrive from New York tomorrow. Active dress rehearsals will commence immediately, and the play will be rounded into shape and produced at the Grand Opera house within the next ten days.

One of the scenes represents a beautiful garden landscape, being taken from an English country estate. The other two scenes will be interior views of an English manor house and a London apartment.

"The Importance of Being Earnest" was selected for this production of the Players' club by Mrs. Thaddeus Horton, who is dramatic director of the club, and in being chosen it won out over a French problem play, "Society Where They Are Bored." The butterfly, by Guy Carleton, and many others which were studied before the selection was made.

divides El Paso from Juarez, and went back with Mr. Hamilton.

It is now believed that he will live to stand trial on the charges against him. A severe rupture is the only serious injury that he received in Mexico, although his system is so generally worn down that he appears to be dying.

He says he will not "talk"—divulge information in regard to other transactions of those connected with the Commercial Loan and Discount company. Other than that, he would not speak of any of his former business affairs.

Believes Smith Only Guilty Man.

Frank M. Myers, Jr., who was connected with the concern, said last night that he had no idea that anyone else would be entangled.

"I believe that Smith alone was guilty," he declared last night. "I certainly do not believe that he will 'tell anything.' The affairs of the company were not involved anyway—all of the forgeries were of a personal nature."

He denied the report that anyone in Atlanta, who had formerly been connected with the concern, had been putting up money to fight the extradition of Smith from Mexico.

"There was no reason for anyone doing so," he said, "and I am quite positive that no one did—at least, as far as I know."

TWO PERSONS KILLED; TWO OTHERS INJURED

man has only a chance for life. It is supposed to be due to the speed at which the engine with only a tender attached was rounding the curve. Examination of the track showed no defects and showed only that the tender had gone off first.

Burns stated afterward that he was walking up the track near the place when he saw the accident and rushed toward the place. The flagman was completely hidden under the overturned engine and the engineer was in such a position that he was pinned where a jet of steam played upon his body. The negro fireman was scalded and so hurt that he could not give aid.

Burns was working under the steam trying to pull Engineer Brooks out when rescuers arrived. He had not given the task up, although it appeared impossible for one man to extricate the suffering man.

Help Engineer, He Urged.

Rescuers believed at first in the darkness that he was one of the engine crew, and sought to carry him to the waiting coach, where physicians and nurses were awaiting him. It was then that he pointed out Engineer Brooks, who had become unconscious and unable to attract help.

A moment after he had shown the place of the engineer, the tramp declared tramp fainted away. Trainmen hastily bore him to the hospital coach and others exerted their strength in freeing Brooks.

Later a huge derrick lifted the engine and disclosed the mangled form of the flagman. He had apparently been killed instantly.

A relief train had been dispatched within half an hour of the wreck, which occurred at 8:30 o'clock upon this was placed Brooks, the tramp and the negro fireman. Brooks died in the ambulance as he was being transferred to the hospital. Burns was taken to the Atlanta hospital, where he was given every attention, and where it was stated that physical exhaustion and the minor burns on his hands and arms would require his spending a short time there.

The fireman was taken to Fairview Haven, a negro hospital, and while he is seriously burned, it is stated that he has a chance to recover.

Thankful Passengers Reward Saver.

The passengers of Seaboard train, No. 12, made up a handsome purse for the farmer who had waved them down. The man gave his name simply as Hall, and seemed to take his deed in stopping the train as a matter of course.

A special train left Atlanta at 10:10 o'clock last night and brought the passengers to Atlanta. Railway officials stated that the main line would be cleared before daybreak this morning and regular traffic resumed.

Engineer Brooks lived at 50 Catherine street. He was the son of R. L. Brooks, for over thirty-five years an engineer on the same road. He was about 30 years old and unmarried.

Fireman Allen came here from Gibsland, La. He was apparently 32 years old and was stated to be unmarried.

The bodies of both the men were taken to Greenberg & Bond's undertaking establishment and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Zucker was instantly killed, Dietrich was badly injured, and the two men in the monoplane were slightly injured.

RANNEY SAYS HE STOLE TO PAY BLACK MAILERS

Los Angeles, Cal., May 14.—Declaring that he embezzled to silence blackmailers, William St. John Ranney, of Pasadena, pleaded guilty today of stealing money from the Santa Fe Railway company, by which he was employed as chief clerk to the auditor. Ranney, though charged with the embezzlement of $60,000, was arraigned on only one charge, which involved $1,815. He will be sentenced Saturday next.

Ranney submitted to the court a written statement, in which he declared he had embezzled to obtain money to silence five men who threatened to expose him as a former prisoner in the New York state reformatory.

Ranney passed five years at Elmira, he said, after having stolen money from a New York firm. He declared his criminal career began when his employer made it a part of his duty to show country customers the tenderloin of the metropolis.
